100th year chairpeople picked

by KATIE KUEHNER
Lakeland Newspapers

Linda Pederson and Bill Brooks have been appointed by Antioch Mayor Robert Wilton as the chairpersons of Antioch's 100th year anniversary celebration, set for 1992. The two residents are to meet with Wilton and then select committee members to begin coordinating a series of year-long events, culminating in a week-long gala surrounding February 29, 1990 - the village's 100th year anniversary.

"We're going to sit down this week or next week to discuss some general ideas and to structure the committee," Wilton said.

"I think we should have a really nice celebration. It's great to be celebrating 100 years. They (the festivities) will be keyed on Antioch's history -- on how we got started."

Wilton said he chose Brooks and Pederson because they've had experience organizing large events, they're life-long Antioch residents, and he thinks they will work well together.

"Bill and I co-chaired the 75th anniversary in 1967. Bill did an excellent job and I believe he will again (for the 100th anniversary)."

"Linda is a good organizer and a hard worker. She's a life-long resident, part of a family that is very active in the community."

Pederson said she is looking forward to working with Brooks and the committee after it's formed. "We've got a lot of ideas already."

Pederson is the current president of Antioch Junior Woman's Club, was co-chairman of the Hunt Club Family House Walk, and for five years was member of the committee that headed up St. Peter's annual Footlights event. She was also the chairperson for the committee that held the 50th anniversary dinner for the Antioch Rescue Squad.

"I'd like to involve the whole community in 1992," Pederson said. "The youth, the elderly, single adults, families, workers in all areas -- in an effort to tie everything together to create a worthwhile celebration."

"From the older adults," she continued, "we can pull in a lot of Antioch's history. By involving the youth, we will be considering Antioch's future while celebrating its 100th year anniversary."

Lakeland's Halloween ghost

The mystery face appearing in the window at the burn down of a condemned house in Wilmot is the base of Lakeland's real life Halloween mystery. Russell Badtke, owner of the Wilmot Cafe, just around the corner from the Kopisch house, took this picture as Wilmot's firemen were burning down the empty century-old house. See the story of the Kopisch house with some thoughts on who the mystery face could belong to inside in the weekend section.

Shuman garners honor for March photo spread

Emotion is what it is all about when it comes to high school basketball tournaments.

And that applies to those reporting as well as those participating or cheerleading. And the height of the post-season play is March Madness.

"Every time I do a big game, I shoot better," Lakeland Newspapers photographer Joe Shuman said.

Shuman's efforts at the Warren-Carmel regional basketball championship game last March were rewarded by the Illinois Press Assn. A photo page which appeared in the Gurnee Press and Warren-Newport Press editions won first place from the IPA Division A for photo series or story.

Shuman used three different lenses to shoot the five photos which appeared on the page. They included the winning Blue Devils showing off the trophy, two action photos of one-on-one plays, a Warren player embracing a cheerleader and Warren's fans. The page was put together with the assistance of Sue Bellinder of Lakeland's composition department.

Warren won the emotional affair 75-68 and this was the third straight regional title for the Blue Devils. The page was headlined, "Warren Keeps Regional Magic Going".

The lighting at Libertyville High School is "one of the best in the conference," Shuman said.

Shuman, a Round Lake resident, is a junior at Northern Illinois University. He is presently working for the Northern Star, the daily student newspaper at NIU.

Shuman is a 1986 graduate of Round Lake Senior High School and was a wide receiver on the 1985 Round Lake football team which made the playoffs.

"It's something I've enjoyed doing," Shuman said.

Shuman, a College of Lake County graduate, has experience in commercial photography and has shot Chicago Bear football games as well.

He is a member of the since 1986. He is assigned reserves, having served in to the 108th support the Army National Guard battalion, based in Chicago.

Ready for next assignment

Work to be done on McHenry Lock, hatchery

Sen. Jack Schaffer (R-McHenry County) has announced the release of more than $300,000 for projects in the 32nd Senate Dist., including rehabilitation work at the McHenry Lock and Dam on the Fox River.

A total of $250,000 was released for rehabilitation and upgrading of the lock and dam and support facility, while $42,806 in State Boating Act funds was released for rehabilitating the service operating structure at the facility.

In addition, $30,000 was released for a rehabilitation study at the Spring Grove Hatchery. The project is part of $2.9 million in conservation funds released statewide.

Communities to approve

Barrington Hills and Mettawa are two area communities who will ask voters Nov. 6 to approve a request to become a home rule community. In Barrington Hills, the home rule authority is being sought to obtain local control over important environmental issues. In Mettawa, the goal is to provide the village with additional taxing options.

Antioch activists protest Gillette

Caring consumers nationwide will escalate their boycott of Gillette Saturday, Oct. 27, when they gather together at shopping plazas, malls, and college campuses in 45 U.S. cities as part of the declared "Dump Gillette Day," the largest day of protest ever against the company. Locally, activists are asking people to empty their homes and offices of Gillette products and take them to the "Dump Gillette" trash can at Jewel Food Store (front of parking lot); Rt. 173 & 59, Antioch where activists will distribute information fliers from 10 a.m. until 2 p.m. People for the Ethical Treatment of Animals (PETA), America's largest animal rights organization, the New England Anti-Vivisection Society (NEAVS), and A.C.T. (Animal rights, Consumer awareness, Taking a stand), are sponsoring Saturday's activities.

"Gillette claims to be an industry leader," says "Dump Gillette" Campaign Coordinator Sammy Busby, "yet it lags behind 300 other companies by sticking to crude animal tests. People buy Gillette razor blades, shaving cream, and shampoos without realizing they're supporting pain and suffering. Saturday Antioch activists will expose Gillette's policy to the Illinois public."

Gillette products include Liquid Paper, Papermate, and Flair office products; Right Guard, Soft N'Dry, and Dry Idea deodorants; Silkience and White Rain shampoos; Foamy shaving cream; and Sensor and Good News razors.

A list of the more than 300 cruelty-free companies whose products are tested on human skin, in the test tube, and with other sophisticated non-animal tests, is available free of charge from A.C.T.

100th anniversary

Pederson said she'd like to have continuing projects and events scheduled throughout the centennial, culminating in a major celebration the week of February 29, 1992.

Brooks said he is very excited about 1992. "We're going to plan on the best centennial celebration any village has had in the county."

"This village has been my whole life," he said. "I think it's wonderful to live here and I'd also like to see it improve."

"Activities like this contribute to the general welfare of the community. It brings people together where ideas are shared. People get to know each other -- and if they can become compatible at these functions, then the community as a whole functions better."

Brooks said he'd also like to see another intensified series of events scheduled for the summer of 1992. "We'll give the summer visitors also an opportunity to participate."

Wilton added that more parades and outside activities could be planned for the summer months, in addition to the events that can be scheduled during February, the principle month of celebration.

Additionally, Antioch Village Trustee Mabel Lou Weber said that the Antioch Woman's Club is discussing holding an anniversary party the night of February 29, 1992. The funds generated would be put directly back into the village, such as to visually improve the downtown parking lots.

Brooks said he believed from hearsay that the name of Antioch was pushed by the Christian Church (that used to reside in St. Ignace Church's building) when the village was incorporated. "They pushed the name because Antioch was also the name of the first town in biblical history that some people were called Christians."

Wilton said he had always wanted to be mayor when the villages turned 100 years old. "I didn't think I'd ever make it, but I'll be very excited if I'm here in 1992!"

He added that his great-grandfather, Thomas Wilton, headed up the group that petitioned for Antioch's incorporation in 1892, thus officially creating the village.

Board discusses village paying $9,000 hauling

by GLORIA DAVIS
Lakeland Newspaper

After reading a myriad of annexation ordinances, most already acted on by the village board, the board launched into a discussion on a reaffirmation of an open-burning ordinance.

He said that residents dealing with their own haulers was the same reason that cleanup day had been demolished a few years ago.

Trustee Ed Kosziorowski said that this should have been taken care of much earlier and also asked about contracting

Wilton: 'It's time that we give the citizens more services for their taxes.'

With village composting still in the future, Trustee Marilyn Shineflug reiterated that landscape refuse such as grass clippings, tree limbs, leaves etc. could not be put in a landfill.

The discussion then went to landscape refuse or leaf pickup being extended through the end of November by the two main village haulers, Waste Management and Northshore.

According to Village Admin. Tim Wells, the leaf pickup for the month of November will cost $6.65 per house or approximately $9,000 in total.

Mayor Robert Wilton suggested that the village pick up the $9,000. "We should give the people some services for their taxes," added the mayor. He also decried the loss of cleanup day.

Trustee Don Amundsen said that many people had already talked to their own haulers for the last month of leaf pickup.

one hauler for the village.

After the meeting, Shineflug said that this had been talked about years ago but the residents seemed to prefer to handle their hauling from the private sector.

She added that residents were notified that they had to make arrangements to have "landscape" waste hauled away early last summer.

Waste Management's charge for the hauling for the month of November is $4.70 for two bags (paper).

Paper bags to hold the leaves must be purchased and the cost will go up 50 cents per bag thereafter.

Shineflug added, "We should look into leaf hauling for the entire time period much earlier next year."

She also reported to the board that the first aluminum can recycling check for $58 had been received by the village

Miller gets attorney for Culat appeal case

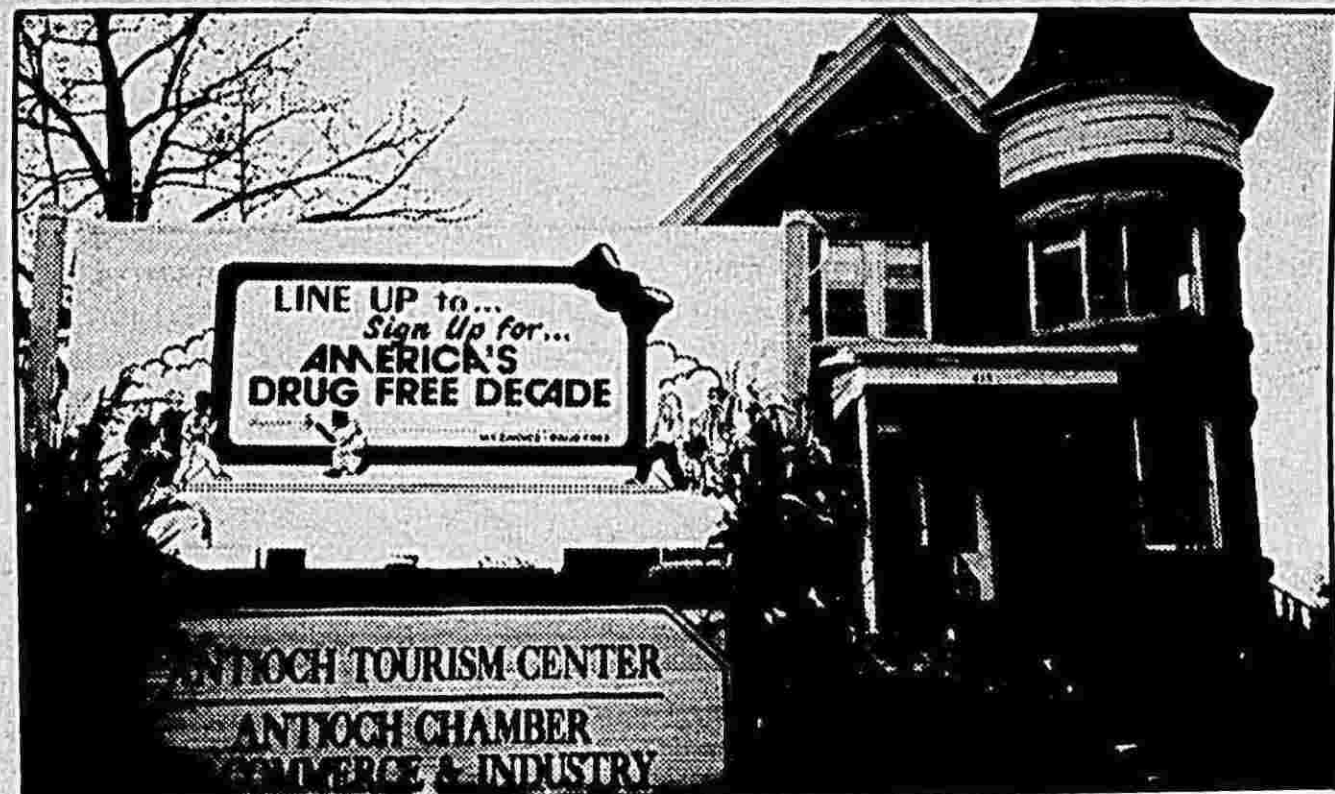

by GLORIA DAVIS
Lakeland Newspapers

After returning from executive session, the Antioch Village Board approved the request of Police Chief Charles Miller that he be able to hire an attorney to represent the village and the police administration concerning a suspension appeal filed by Police Officer Mike Culat.

The Board of Police and Fire hearing is scheduled from 4 p.m. on Nov. 13 at the village hall.

Sources report that Culat is appealing a two-day suspension by Miller. The reasons for the suspension are allegations of a problem between Culat and the Kenosha County Dist. Atty's office, of Culat tagging evidence and of the disappearance of papers attached to a police report.

Chamber part of Red Ribbon Week

Antioch Chamber of Commerce was one of the many organizations that is participating in Red Ribbon Week, a national anti-drug campaign to reduce the demand for drugs and alcohol. The chamber provided all of its members and their employees red ribbons to wear as a symbol recognizing their commitment to a drug-free Antioch. The ribbons were financially provided by the First National Bank of Antioch and the State Bank of Antioch.

Eagle Ridge of Antioch receives final plat approval

Country Estate Developers has received final plat approval from Antioch's City Council, for its newest development, Eagle Ridge of Antioch, a planned community of luxury custom-built homes nestled among partially wooded and rolling meadowed homesites.

An 81-acre, 52 homesite subdivision, groundbreaking plans have already been set in motion. Bot principal roads and private drives were scheduled for completion Oct. 23.

Antioch's village board overwhelmingly supported the final plat of Eagle Ridge Oct. 1, with council members lauding the development as a welcome addition to the city.

Tim O'Leary, president of Gurnee-based Country Estate Developers, said, "Antioch's enthusiasm towards Eagle Ridge has really gotten our adrenalin going. We're now going full-speed ahead with our marketing and advertising efforts, and already we're ahead of schedule for road completion."

Located off of Rte. 173, each Eagle Ridge homesite will be over one-acre in size. In addition all homesites will be well and septic.

Eagle Ridge's east and west boundaries border protected conservation areas where no additional developing can be done. At its south boundary, a dense tree line separates the luxury subdivision from existing farmland. Only three homesites, with minimum 60' lot line buffers and 110' home buffers, are adjacent to the subdivision's north border, Rte. 173.

Over the years Country Estate Developers has established itself as a developing firm that maintains and enhances the natural land on which it develops.

At Eagle Ridge, many of Eagle Ridge's homesites will border private and protected open space. In addition, the firm will revitalize four ponds on the property, protect existing mature growth, and enhance the environment with additional landscaping flora.

"Antioch has so much to offer families. No only is the Antioch elementary school system currently rated number one in reading for the state of Illinois, there's also the nearby Chain-of-Lakes for recreation, and the tollway is close as well."

Eagle Ridge homesite owners will have the option of utilizing their own builder or choosing from Country Estate Developers' master builder list. All home designs must meet the development's covenants and restrictions, and will be subject to architectural review.

Custom homes in Eagle Ridge will range in size from 2,400 sq. ft. and up.

Homesite prices will begin in the mid $60,000's. Prices for homesite with custom home will begin in the $300,000's.

Program for parents of teens set at high school

The Antioch Community High School Student Assistance Program is now offering information and registration for an innovative video-based program designed to help parents communicate with their teenagers.

Entitled Active Parenting of Teens, the program features over 60 video vignettes on relevant and timely topics concerning today's teens, according to Cathy Cratty, director of the Assistance Program. The video-based group discussion program gives parents support and confidence, as well as practical ideas and ways to effectively raise teens in today's confusing world.

During the course, parents learn skills of encouragement, discipline and communication with other parents under the guidance of an experienced group leader. They learn concepts and theories and then discover methods of putting these theories into use in dealing with issues such as helping their teens cope with the pressures of sex, drugs and alcohol.

The course will be offered in six two-hour sessions, beginning Wednesday, Oct. 24 and ending on Monday, Nov. 26. A $15 fee will be charged to cover the cost of the book that comes with the course.

To register, please call Cathy Cratty or Tom Baba at (708) 395-1421.

Folk singer comes to school

David Stoeri, folk singer and story teller, entertained children at Antioch Grade School in grades kindergarten through 3rd with turn-of-the-century songs. He also told stories that depicted that time of history, as well as just had fun with nonsense rhymes the children giggled over. "The kids really enjoyed him," principal Harlan Ware, said. — photo by Katie Kuehner.

School Programs to combat abuse set up

by KATIE KUEHNER
Lakeland Newspapers

In order to meet the community's increasing needs of educating and providing support about substance abuse, Antioch High School, as well as all of the schools that feed into it, have begun programs centering around students' coping with the issue.

Antioch High School last year started its Student Assistance Program, coordinated by Cathy Cratty. "The program is actually made up of many facets, as we realized that substance abuse can be seen as just a part of greater problems," Cratty said.

Consequently, the program is broken down into sub-categories -- prevention, survey, intervention, school-based (school-wide policies, parent programs), community (e.g., task forces) and the employee assistance program.

Within these categories are projects, groups or programs that deal with substance abuse directly, or with other issues that can be seen as contributing to the problems related to abuse. Such issues are suicide, stress management, feeling good naturally and wellness issues.

"People must realize we are here for education and support, but we cannot provide therapy," she said. "Sometimes there is that expectation. We do give the students and their parents references of professionals and agencies that can help them."

Several of the prevention programs that the schools have are ALPHA, Magic Potion, Operation Snowflake, Snowball, Snow Flurry and Snow Blizzard, Lifeguard, and Clowning.

The snow programs heighten the students' awareness on drug and alcohol prevention as well as teach them skills in healthy decision making and positive self-esteem.

Magic Potion and Clowning are programs that bring high school students into the lower grades to foster feeling good naturally and teach drug prevention issues.

Lifeguard is a student group that grew out of Students Against Drunk Driving

(S.A.D.D.). "They wanted to expand the program to include all facets of life and not just driving," Cratty said.

She said on the drawing board is a stress management group for honors students, in cooperation with the gifted program and a substance abuse athletic program.

The other sub-categories of the Student Assistance Program will be featured throughout the year.

Cratty said all of the lower school districts also have programs and all are working in concert with each other and with the high school.

Facts on alcohol and substance abuse

In Lake County:

Half of all Lake County suicide victims had alcohol or other drugs in their systems at the time of death.

According to a 1990 Lake County student survey, 84 percent of high school seniors have used alcohol.

Approximately 63 percent of all Lake County traffic accidents involve the use of alcohol or other drugs.

In Illinois:

One million Illinoisans abuse alcohol and other drugs, making it the state's largest disability group.

One of every three people in the U.S.—five million in Illinois alone—suffer from alcohol or other drug abuse, either directly or through a family member.

An estimated 2,400 Illinois children between the ages of 12 and 13 have tried cocaine.

In 1988, nearly 1,100 reports of babies with cocaine in their systems were made to the Ill. Dept. of Children and Family Services. That was an increase of 153 percent over 1987 figures which totaled 433.

Nationally:

Drug trafficking is estimated to gross $100 billion a year, according to the South Florida Task Force.

The average first time drug user in the United States is now thirteen years old.

Two thirds of the adolescent population use an illicit drug before they finish high school.

Fetal Alcohol Syndrome (FAS), with accompanying mental retardation, is the third leading cause of birth defects, and the only one among the top three causes that is preventable.

Guidelines for parents hosting a party

Set the ground rules with your child before the party.

• Let your child know that parties at your house are to be alcohol and drug-free.

• Allow time for yourself and your child to discuss feelings and concerns. Help your teen understand your philosophy of drug-free parties.

• Discuss your expectations for your child's and guest's behavior at the party. Determine consequences for inappropriate behavior.

Party policies

• Establish a location for the party. Pick a spot where guests will be comfortable and supervision can be maintained.

• Make it clear that guests will not be allowed to come and go. This will discourage guest from leaving the party to drink or use other drugs elsewhere and return to your home.

Determine a guest list

• Do not allow guests to attend your party who were not invite ahead of time.

• Do not allow guests to attend your party who were not invited ahead of time.

Parents must be present

• Invite additional parents to chaperon, if needed.

• Notify neighbors and police about any party which may affect your neighbors. This will indicate that the party is being properly supervised.

• Help your child feel comfortable with making plans for an alcohol and drug free party. To avoid boredom or inappropriate behavior plan activities prior to the party. You may want to consider: Theme parties, games, planned activities (sporting event, visiting amusement park, etc.)

• Provide plenty of food and beverages.

• Be alert for the signs of alcohol or drug use. Enforce consequence established during party planning.

• Watch for inappropriate or prolonged activity outdoors, in restrooms or elsewhere in your home.

• If, despite all precautions, things get out of hand, do not hesitate to call the police department for help.

According to InTouch, a substance abuse prevention program co-sponsored by Lake County Health Dept. and the Northern Illinois Council on Alcoholism and Substance Abuse, evidence indicates that parents are the most influential people in their children's lives. As statistics mount on alcohol and other drug use by youth today, parents need to understand their vital role in drug prevention.

The following list of tips are designed to help parents help their children say "NO!":

- Learn to really listen to your child.
- Help your child feel good about himself or herself.
- Help your child develop strong values.
- Be a good role model or example.
- Help your child with peer pressure.
- Make family rules.
- Encourage healthy, creative activities.
- Team up with other parents.
- Talk with your child about alcohol and other drugs.
- Know what to do if you suspect a problem. Do not be ashamed or embarrassed to seek help. Your doctor, guidance counselor or youth agencies can tell you where to go for help.

If engineer okays bridge, bus goes in Wedgewood

by KATIE KUEHNER
Lakeland Newspapers

Antioch Twp. Highway Commissioner Mark Ring said he has scheduled a structural engineer from Springfield to come this week to Wedgewood subdivision to determine if the bridge inside the subdivision is safe enough for a school bus to drive across it.

Antioch School Dist. 36 Supt. Dr. Donald Skidmore said that if the engineer reports the bridge is structurally sound, then the district would reroute the bus run to actually come into Wedgewood.

This should make the most of the residents of Wedgewood very happy, considering the majority has publicly complained about the dangerous bus stop that is presently used on the corner of Deep Lake Rd. and Stanton Rd.

"Once the engineer gives us the okay, then we'll reroute the bus run immediately," Skidmore said.

Ring said he had surveyed the area previously and thought it was sound, but decided to employ Collins and Rice of Springfield, who are experts in the field of structural engineering to make sure.

He also said the township has helped to clear brush away and will move mailboxes to allow more room for the bus to come through the subdivision.

If the bridge is determined to be safe, then the new route will come in through Stanton Rd. and exit through Green St. This would eliminate the stop on Deep Lake Rd. Residents have expressed fear of the county road, with a hill just north of the bus stop and the speed of the traffic that drives on it.

The residents themselves have also cleared the brush from the sides of the roads and will clean whatever is remaining that could obstruct the bus's path.

Collins and Rice was scheduled to study the bridge Thursday and is set to report to Ring as soon as possible. The school board should then be able to make its decision regarding the rerouting at or before its next meeting, scheduled for Tuesday, Nov. 6.

In their honor, the Bank of Waukegan, Antioch facility, represented by Bill Battistone presented a check for $100 to the Parent/Teacher Scholarship fund in their name. — photo by Katie Kuehner.

Letter To The Editor

Dangerous referenda

Editor:

We're getting near the Nov. 6 election with promises and referenda. There is a referendum on an Antioch Park Dist. and there is talk about a new high school. For what? A handful of students now and for future students. The empty rooms can be sublet or used for cake sales, hobby crafts or junk sales.

Money already is being spent on perk tests and planning, not even knowing if the referendum will pass. The last referendum for school problems resulted in the teachers getting a nice raise. There should be a referendum for senior citizens to be taken off the school tax.

It will be easy to deal with the federal deficit. Start cutting with Congress, then the Senate. Instead of a pay raise, start with a 65 percent pay cut.

Look out for the referendum to make the county coroner and recorder appointed. Next we will have one vote and the rest appointed. That's the way it starts.

Exchange clubs save money

How would you like to have $240 extra spending money? That's how much extra you'd have in your food budget each year if your purchased one parcel of Share/Foods each month.

This is how it works: The Exchange Club of Antioch buys each package worth at least $35 to $40 for $15, and sells it to you for $15. All that's asked is that you give three hours of community service to a school, church, or any non-profit agency. For example you can help distribute the Share/Foods one Saturday morning each month.

Get set for "Footlights"

by LIZ SCHMEHL
(708)395-5380

Annual Fund Raisers

St. Peter's annual production of "Footlights" will be opening its doors to the public on Friday, Nov. 2. If you had an opportunity to attend "Footlights" in the past, I am sure you will make a strong effort to attend this year's production. If you haven't visited "Footlights" before and want to treat yourself to a totally enjoyable evening, circle the following dates on your calendar - Fridays; special congratulations to Dr. Ruth Bill, superintendent of Grass Lake School. Dr. Bill was recently honored as the Most Distinguished Principal in the State of Illinois. There were only 60 people from all 50 states receiving this award - most from public schools and some from private schools. When you stop to think about how many thousands of principals there are in each individual state, then you will realize the special significance of being chosen for this pres-had an excellent season of six wins and one loss. On Sunday, Oct. 14, they defeated Round Lake 20 - 0 and this put them in second place for the regular season game status.

Theatre Time

On Wednesday, Oct. 17, the Grass Lake School junior high students participated in an afternoon outing to Marriott's Lincolnshire Theatre to enjoy a performance of "South Pacific." The students were all decked out in their Sunday best and definitely enjoyed the opportunity to participate in this cultural experience. The junior high teachers, Carolyn Adams, Ted Gavlin and Vickie Glessner were on hand to help the parent chaperones supervise the fun-loving group of young people. The students and teachers would like to thank the following people who volunteered to chaperone the outing - Louanne Spencer, Shirley Kitto, Arlene Walsh, Marie Brausam, Judy Fechtner, Julie Groh, Joanne Fleshman, Barb Kocal, Rich Kocal and Tina Houle. The Marriott Lincolnshire is a beautiful place and there isn't a bad seat in the house. The stage is in the center of the room with the many rows of seats circled around it. The performers did an excellent job as did the stage crew and orchestra. At the last minute, I was also able to participate in this outing. I truly had a wonderfully relaxing time and I highly suggest you try to visit the theatre in the near future. I think you will also enjoy the experience.

Lizard's Adventure

Well, people, remember I told you I was going to undertake a new adventure this fall. Well my new experience began and I am really enjoying it. So far I am doing okay at it. When I complete the task at hand, I'll give you all an overview of what I got involved in. Naturally You must keep reading "Hometown Goodies" for further reports on my success or failure at this undertaking. Norma Rubash, no questions yet, I'll let you know soon enough.

Board Meeting

There was another big turnout to the Wednesday, Oct. 10, school board meeting at Grass Lake School. Some items on the agenda were a tabling of the policy concerning smoking prohibition; the approval of a policy on Drug and Alcohol Free Workplace; a decision on the next step of the annual school board self-evaluation process; acceptance of the auditor's report; review of the school report card; an increase in the hot lunch and milk prices for the second semester; and a detailed review of the Superintendent's Board of Education memoranda. During the first part of the evening, the board welcomed Tom Shauhannessy of the "Friends of the Parks" committee. Tom was on hand to show the information video prepared for the up-coming park district referendum as a service for the community to inform everyone of what an official park district means to Antioch. As I mentioned before, I have already viewed the video and I think those present at the meeting will agree that the video and I think those present at the meeting will agree that the video is very well done and gives a lot of information about a park district. The video is only 10 minutes long and if you would like to borrow a copy for viewing as an individual or a group you can contact the Antioch Park's Dept. for further information.

Outstanding Season

On Sunday, Oct. 14, the Antioch Viking Heavyweights defeated Round Lake in the rainy day mud bowl - 12 to six. Antioch now holds the record for the best regular season of seven wins and zero losses. This last win gave the heavyweights home field advantage for the play off games which begin on Sunday, Oct. 21. The Antioch Viking Lightweights also What's the leading cause of home fires?

For the second consecutive year, electrical equipment misuse and malfunctions were the leading cause of residential fires in Lake County in 1989, according to a study released by the Kemper National Insurance Companies.

Nine people were killed in those fires, which totaled 629 and caused more than $6.9 million in damage, down from the $10 million in damage resulting from home fires in 1988. Four people were killed in residential fires in 1988.

Electrical equipment malfunctions caused 112, or 18 percent, of all home fires reported to local fire departments in 1989. By comparison, electrical equipment misuse was the cause of 20 percent of home fires in 1988. Carelessness while cooking, the second leading cause of home fires in 1989, accounted for 100, or 16 percent, of residential fires, the same percentage as in 1988.

The 629 home fires reported last year represents an 8 percent decrease from 1988's 685 fires. That drop is consistent with the 7 percent reduction in home fires nationally in 1989 from 1988, according to the National Fire Protection Assoc. Last year, home fires accounted for 16 percent of all Lake County fires.

In conjunction with National Fire Prevention Week (Oct. 7 - 13) and for the 10th consecutive year, Kemper National, a Long Grove-based property-casualty insurer, conducted a survey of Lake County fire departments to determine the leading causes of residential fires. This past year, 21 Lake County fire departments responded to the survey.

In 1989, heating equipment misuse and malfunction accounted for 15 percent of home fires, which tied with arson or fires of otherwise suspicious origin as the third leading cause. Nearly one-third of the arson fires were started by juveniles. In 1988, arson accounted for 11 percent of home fires. Children playing with matches and careless smoking accounted for 7 percent and 6 percent, respectively, of all home fires last year. Explosion or ignition of flammable liquids was responsible for 4 percent of the fires, down slightly from 6 percent in 1988.

Of the homes that had fires in 1989, 52 percent did not have a working smoke alarm, which is slightly higher than 51 percent of homes in 1988. Illinois law requires at least one smoke detector on every level of a home. The United States Fire Administration reports that homes with smoke detectors have better than a 50 percent lower fire death rate than homes without detectors.

As another incentive, most insurance companies, including Kemper National, offer discounts on homeowners; policies when a smoke detector or sprinkler system is installed.

In 1987, residential fires were most often caused by, in order of frequency, cooking carelessness, electrical equipment misuse and malfunction, arson, heating equipment misuse and malfunction, careless smoking, and explosion or ignition of flammable liquids.

David C. Grupp, Kemper National's fire protection engineer and chief of the Long Grove Fire Protection Dist., says although it is encouraging to see a decrease in the number of home fires, homeowners should remain mindful of safe practices to prevent these fires.

"Although it is somewhat satisfying to see that there were fewer home fires in Lake County last year than in 1988," said Grupp, "homeowners must continue to think 'safety first' in and around their homes. Remember that smoke detectors do save lives and could save yours."

"Make it a priority to get the appropriate number of detectors for your home," he said. "If a fire does start, smoke detectors can enable you to call the fire department more quickly or extinguish smaller fires yourself."

Edgar for Governor

For more than a year, Republican Sec. of State James Edgar and Democratic Atty. Gen. Neil Hartigan have been slugging it out for the right to move into the governor's mansion. With the Nov. 6 campaign heading down to the wire, neither candidate has been able to deliver a knock out blow and the contest is regarded a virtual deadheat.

In a very real sense, the campaign for the governorship is a collision of formidable forces. As high-ranking state officials, both Edgar and Hartigan have had prominent platforms from which to deliver their campaign pronouncements. In the whole, both have creditable records. The air has been filled with more campaign rhetoric than anyone can handle, but the whole campaign turns on taxes; which candidate can best keep under control a system that is fast plowing under an electorate in shell shock over skyrocketing real estate taxes.

Hartigan repeatedly has stated that he will put a lid on real estate taxes and still provide adequately for education. Both parties have failed miserably in instituting reform measures that will at the same time fulfill the state's Constitutional mandate to fund education and provide relief to homeowners. The Democrat says, "No new taxes," and Edgar responds that his opponent is using smoke and mirrors. Edgar says he is dealing with the voters honestly by calling for extension of the income tax surcharge to provide for schools. Hartigan insists that his business background will enable him to "get the state back on a business-like basis" by combining natural growth with cuts in waste to free up new funds, as much as $573 million. And so it goes.

The Chicago Democrat, positioning himself as an anti-tax conservative, has provided conservatives and Republicans alike with a heady brew. For much of the campaign, it was convenient for many voters to feel comfortable with this kind of talk. Now it's decision time and time to face political realities.

The realities are that the Illinois General Assembly will remain in the hands of a Democrat majority. Coupling the Democratic proclivity to tax and spend with one of their own in the governor's chair is an invitation for disaster for Illinois, a state that has worked hard to recover from the abuse heaped on the electorate by the last Democratic governor. Memories of the disaster simply won't go away and for this reason, Lakeland Newspapers prefers Jim Edgar to be elected governor.

Edgar may be carrying baggage left over from the excesses of the Thompson years, but Hartigan is hounded by the ghost of Dan Walker. For their own protection and safety's sake, voters should keep a Republican in the governor's mansion. This may not be a ringing endorsement for Jim Edgar, but it's more than sufficient reason in our mind to support Edgar.

Martin for Senate

If there ever was a political campaign where it is time to call for a change, it is the race this year for an Illinois seat in the U.S. Senate between Democratic Sen. Paul Simon and Republican Congresswoman Lynn Martin.

In one office or another for nearly 40 years, Illinois voters have been hearing Simon expound on his philosophy, born of his New Deal childhood, that we can trust big government to solve every problem that comes down the pike. "Tax and spend." Bigger government is better government.

There might have been a time when that approach made sense. It certainly was in vogue. Few will question the New Deal grip on our nation. But that time has long since past and even in his own party, Sen. Simon is a voice of the past. Simon simply isn't in tune with the times. For that reason, Lakeland Newspapers is giving its endorsement to Martin, who has been battling uphill valiantly to deliver the message that there are alternatives to "tax and spend."

Innately decent and possessing a social conscience as wide as the Grand Canyon, Simon nonetheless has proved that he can swing with the best of them when the going gets tough. He's a politician, all right. Some of his ads have distorted Martin's record and she has accused him of scaring senior citizens. As a former teacher, Martin understands the need to improve education for children and adults alike. She is pro-choice. Martin has done her part to advance funding for day care, transportation, Meals on Wheels, Alzheimer's research and employment. So Simon is off base trying to picture his opponent as a GOP mossback who doesn't care for people.

Election Choices

•Grinnell •Yastrow

Two Republicans, Lake County Sheriff Clinton Grinnell and Regional Supt. of Schools Sybil Yastrow are running unopposed for reelection. They should not be overlooked for a vote of confidence for the outstanding job they are doing in their respective offices.

•Judicial Retention

As required by law, sitting Circuit Court judges must stand every six years for retention with at a general election with voters casting a simple yes or no vote on their remaining in office. The 19th Judicial Circuit is blessed with an outstanding group of hard-working, dedicated judges. Five of them are up for retention and are worthy of your affirmative vote to keep them on the bench. They are Fred A. Geiger, Charles F. Scott, Michael J. Sullivan, Henry L. Cowlin and Bernard E. Drew Jr.

•State Rep.

State Rep. John S. Matijevich, the veteran Democrat who represents a district comprised mostly of Waukegan and North Chicago, is one of the most highly respected members of the Illinois General Assembly. Matijevich is vigorous, honest and knowledgeable. He is our choice in the 61st Dist.

State Rep. Robert W. Churchill, the incumbent in the 62nd Dist. of northeastern Lake County, is a demonstrated leader. Even though we don't always agree with

Viewpoint

Grab your hat! Tax avalanche coming our way

by BILL SCHROEDER

Guess again if you think politicians are reading the lips of the voting public, "No more taxes." Not around here, anyway.

The Nov. 6 ballot is bulging in Lake County with a dozen or more tax increase propositions. The first Tuesday of November will be pivotal for taxpayers---and elected officials. If voters reject new taxes, they just might be in the mood next spring to put some new faces into local government.

Lake County's wealthiest community, Lake Forest, has the biggest referendum going, $24 million to remodel the east campus high school. Woodland Elementary Dist. in the unincorporated area between Grayslake and Gurnee has a $14 million school building and repair proposal up for a decision.

After these two, the other tax hike plans are almost chintzy---like $6 million in the Wauconda Unit Dist. for a new Fox River Shores elementary school, $5.4 in Gurnee for another school(not to mention an education rate increase), $4 million for another school in Fremont Consolidated Dist. and $3,085,000 in the Round Lake Unit Dist. to fund teachers' orders created due to the ill-gotten gains of a salary settlement two years ago.

Riverwoods and Deerfield are teamed up in an interesting parlay to raise money to purchase Thorngate County Club in a deal with the Lake County Forest Preserve Dist. to head off a massive residential building frenzy which would turn into need for more schools and services in a few years. So it's spend now or later. The Riverwoods portion would be $5 million and the Deerfield portion would be $2.5. That would be cheap when you look a numbers like Lake Forest and Woodland.

We also noticed that Round Lake trustees are asking for approval to issue $830,000 in general obligation bonds for sewer and water improvements. Fox Lake trustees want to establish a special tax to raise money to operate the community center, only a cost of $21 each a year they say. More than that could be raised at a rummage sale. Mundelein officials are asking voters advice on a commuter station building plan estimated to cost $2.5 million. Antioch voters will decide on forming a park district. No money now. That'll come later.

Maybe you're getting the point by now that Washington isn't the only place where sizeable numbers are tossed about. Right here in River City, folks. The tax picture isn't pretty.

People who put the issues on the ballot are convinced that the new taxes are absolutely essential. We'll see, won't we?

OFF THE WALL

PAYING TAXES GOES TO A GOOD CAUSE IT KEEPS YOU OUT OF PRISON

and William Peterson, Buffalo Grove, all Republicans, are running unopposed. They are deserving of confidence votes by their constituents, nonetheless, for their outstanding service.

•State Senator

Incumbent Republican State Sen. Jack Schaffer is running unopposed. No one works harder at representing his district than Sen. Schaffer, and few do a better job. He, too, is well deserving of a vote of confidence. Schaffer's district is McHenry County and part of west Lake County.

•Hess for County Clerk

In a time when all costs seem to be going up and nothing is coming down, Lake County Clerk Linda Januzzi Hess has done a remarkable job of reducing the cost of operating her office while maintaining a high level of professional service. After eight years on the job, Hess, a Democrat, literally knows all the ins and outs of her office and richly deserves reelection, in our opinion. Much as we admire his interest in the political process, the Republican candidate, Dr. Paul M. Chung, is not qualified for the technical administrative office. We like the day in and day out job Hess has performed, especially her care in making sure elections are run honestly and efficiently. Hess has pledged to work full-time, while Chung would divide his public duties if elected with his dental practice.

•Anderson for County Treasurer

County Treasurer Jack "Red" Anderson, the Republican candidate, has devoted his entire adult life to public service in the treasurer's office. Anderson has built a dependable staff which handles collection of tax monies and dispersal of the county's funds on time and without problems. We recommend Anderson for reelection. His opponent, Sander Stagman, has made some irresponsible charges during the campaign, indicating that he is not familiar with the treasurer's duties. Stagman has unsuccessfully sought county office before as a Democrat.

Politically Speaking

by JOSEPH SOULAK
Lakeland Newspapers

SEEING RED—Beginning with Jack "Red" Anderson and continuing through his staff, people in the Lake County treasurer's office are seeing shades of red.

They are mad, fighting mad, that a Democrat named Sandar Stagman can make their office look bad. First, they roundly refute Stagman's charges the treasurer can cut tax bills. Stagman proposes doing this by using interest from county investments to offset tax increases.

"At least five or six people have vowed to quit if Stagman is elected," one employee confided. Stagman doesn't mind. He feels there is too much cronyism in the Lake County courthouse, not just the treasurer's office. He calls it the "Good Ol' Boys Club."

But what really has the treasurer's office seeing red and all colors of the rainbow is the endorsement of Stagman by a weekly newspaper. Until now Stagman has been regarded as just another Democrat. Not that Anderson & Co. are all that worried about the election, but it does make an incumbent wonder what's next.

SIGNS, SIGNS, SIGNS—Every election signs pop up where they aren't supposed to be. This one is no exception.

Surprisingly, in the 6th County Board Dist. the billboard-size ones for Democrat Beth Geuzendam of Wauconda seem to be everywhere. Someone reports one on Lakewood Forest Preserve property at Rte. 176 and Fairfield Rd. Another was photographed on public Veterans Park property in downtown Mundelein.

Zealots for Republican gubernatorial candidate Jim Edgar are no angel, either. His blue, gold and white signs are more than one dozen utility poles in Grayslake. Last election the building inspector ordered similar postings by a local park district candidate removed.

AND MORE SIGNS—Signing Lake County this election is incumbent Democratic County Clerk Linda Hess. Her white signs with red lettering seem to be everywhere.

Some say "Elect Linda Hess, County Clerk." Others read "Elect Linda Hess." And still others say, simply, "Hess."

It all depends on the size of the wood out of which the sign is made. Which promoted one observer to speculate the signs are made of scrap wood. In a day when wood doesn't come cheap, signs are a major expense. With loss via vandalism, weather and accidents, it's difficult to keep them around until election day.

But Hess's are here to stay, at least until election day.

WAGON TRAIN—Starting Friday, Oct. 26, and continued through Tuesday, Oct. 30, a Democratic Victory Caravan will wind its way across the state.

"All across the state people can sense a Democratic victory breeze blowing," said organizer Gary Lapaille, the state Democratic party chairman.

Statewide and local Democratic candidates will join the five-day caravan along the way. Helping draw crowds will be the famous Phelps Brothers, renowned country western and gospel singers.

The caravan will make stops at major cities as well as small town cafes, Lapaille said.

But that doesn't mean Lake County. The closest the Democratic wagon train will come to breezing through here is a restaurant at Milwaukee and Belmont Ave.'s on the northwest side of Chicago. That will be between 7 and 8 p.m. on the last day.

Those who want to see and hear the

Letters To The Editor

Statements untrue

Editor:

In the "Politically Speaking" column Joe Soulak printed some accusations made by my opponent.

One of the statements made is that my office "cannot provide daily balances." That statement is not true, and was in fact never even made. As treasurer of a county that has a budget of over $100,000,000 daily balances are essential to be able to make investments and issue checks. I have records of the daily balances available if you or someone from your paper would like to look at them.

Another statement made was that we did not know what "interest is earned in back accounts." We know where every penny of interest is earned, because it is posted not only to the bank where it was earned, but also posted to the fund for which it was invested. These figures are also available, but not in the form requested by Mr. Stagman. They are available by investment rather than in summary form.

I am proud of the job I have done as county treasurer. I have tried to serve the citizens of Lake County in the best possible manner. This office is open to scrutiny by the public, the press, the County Board, and is audited each year by an independent auditor appointed by the county board.

Referendum not secret

Editor:

As co-editor of the Woodland School News, I have watched the Woodland School Board, the Woodland administration, the Woodland teaching staff, the Friends of Woodland, the PTA, and Workers of Woodland struggle with the growth issues facing the school district. That struggle ranges from trying to find the physical space to implement an educational activity in a crowded classroom to worrying about the roomfuls of children in the Elementary Building that do not have a safe place away from glass windows to retreat to in case of a tornado. I have seen people give countless hours of their valuable time to this school district for one reason and one only, their belief in quality education for every child.

The Woodland School News began in the 1989-90 school year as a voluntary effort to inform and unify the Woodland School Community. This letter not only goes home with the students but is also brought in quantities to area preschools, the Warren Twp. Center, the Warren Senior Center, the Warren Twp. Library, a local church, and the Gurnee Village Hall.

The school board, Friends of Woodland and the PTA, I know, have utilized the local papers to announce meetings and information nights. They have urged people to come to school board meeting over and over again. School board members home phone numbers have been printed in a number of articles and flyers along with detailed information.

My point? Nothing about this referendum or anything else at Woodland School is or has been a secret. Yet, I read letters written to the editors of our local papers claiming that Woodland does not need this building bond referendum, that the school board and administration are somehow trying to manipulate the public into spending their money for nothing.

Commuters not welcome

Editor:

Somebody please tell Roberta O'Reilly to observe reality before making remarks that belie her bias and ruin her credibility.

To say that Lake County's traffic problems are "east-west, not in the north-south direction the (extended Rte. 53) highway would take," is absurd. Yes, there is an east-west glut, but it forms en route to the north-south arteries, Rtes. 12 and 53.

I and thousands of other northern Lake County commuters have only those routes to travel to the kinds of jobs that exist in areas like Schaumburg, Itasca and Oak Brook. We would love to work in Lake County, but Ms. O'Reilly and her county board colleagues and predecessors didn't, or wouldn't, do the innovative planning that would have attracted more top employers to our area.

Obstructing the 53 extension is clearly self serving and tells the commuters, "There's no place for you here, and we'll block you from getting to where you can make your living."

The recent employer influx to southern Lake County, and the existence of Baxter and Abbot are encouraging, but today most of Lake County traveled elsewhere to work.

Public ownership facts

Editor:

Most people don't know the present Lake County Board recently created a Land Conservation Committee while it already had the Forest Preserve Dist. set up to conserve land.

According to Mike Graham, the Forest Preserve has bought approximately 3,000 acres of new land and contracted for nearly 5,000 more. This would cost in the neighborhood of $100 million dollars!

The "Spacies" are not content with costing the average family approximately $1,000 for their latest land grab. Now they want the Land Conservation Committee to try and tie up almost all of the remaining farm land in Lake County by means of buying development rights from the farmers so future development will virtually come to a halt. How lovely! It seems obvious that some of these people haven't been reading the newspapers lately about the failure of public ownership of land in Russia. They ought to go there and get a good look for themselves and save Lake County taxpayers a lot of money.

Signs mean business

Editor:

We need a little more than pennants and balloons for signage. The village board took away our rights to advertise with our portable signs. These are visible means to raise sales, to draw in that passerby. It's difficult to stay in business without advertising specials or sales.

I commented on this to the old administration and was told the signs are not conducive to the "Look" we want in Fox Lake. What look do you want? The one of empty stores, because that's what will happen if people don't stop and spend money in Fox Lake. Aren't there enough vacant stores in town already?

In today's economy you should think about bending to help the business people of this town and bring in that sales tax that we need. One of my customers told me about a year ago that they never thought to stop in, that Fox Lake was just a town to pass through on their way to Lake Geneva.

You think our sign ordinance is "too rigid," you're dam right, it's more than that. It's ridiculous!

Industry a 'must'

Editor:

When the day comes that you are able to tally up all of the cost to the Village of Grayslake of the developments, roads, sewer, water, schools, fire protection, police protection, maintenance, etc., I suggest you divide it by the number of housing units and see if you are so happy.

I feel I would not be wrong if I predicted a rise in taxes.

Why? There is no industry, only housing units. It has been proved over and over that housing does not pay its own way, you must have industry.

If you were to talk to an architect about the cost of a new, fully equipped school, I am sure you will find that impact fee will be gone before you have a chance to count it.

You know who will pick up the remaining cost, if any, and the cost of things for years to come, the present property owners of the Village of Grayslake.

GURNEE—With questions from the audience including a wide range of issues from detention to traffic to real estate values and with the officials of the village of Gurnee seeking more information, a bid for a shopping center off Rte. 132 near I-94 was postponed to Nov. 7 by the Gurnee Plan Commission. Concerned residents jammed the meeting room of the Gurnee Municipal Building, coming to give plan commission members a formal statement of their views as well as learn new details.

CHILDRENS FOOT PROBLEMS

Pediatric foot problems can appear very early. They require attention because the bones in a child's foot are soft and pliable and easily damaged by constricting socks, shoes and even bedding. Shoes that fit are especially important for a young child's rapidly growing feet.

Parents have to be on the alert for early developmental problems, since children do not usually complain about them. If you notice that your child is toeing in or out excessively, has a flat foot or is walking or standing strangely, stumbling or tiring easily, you should consult your podiatrist.

If you are suffering from this condition, or have any further questions, contact Dr. Lee Tisa for a NO COST CONSULTATION* to discuss your treatment options.

02-001 CONSTITUTIONAL AMENDMENT 02-001

PROPOSED AMENDMENT TO SECTION 8 OF ARTICLE IX (DELINQUENT TAX SALES)

EXPLANATION OF PROPOSED AMENDMENT

The proposed Amendment deals with the problem of tax sale delinquency on commercial, industrial, vacant non-farm, and large multifamily residential properties. The Amendment has no effect on single family homes, farm land, or apartment buildings of 8 units or less.

The Amendment would permit the legislature to reduce the redemption period following a tax sale of commercial, industrial, vacant non-farm or multifamily residential property. The redemption period is the period of time the delinquent owner has following a tax sale to pay the delinquent taxes and prevent the transfer of title to a new owner.

Under the Amendment the legislature could reduce the redemption period on the specified classes of property from 2 years to 6 months if the property is 2 or more years delinquent. Currently the Illinois Constitution permits a shorter redemption period only if the property is 5 or more years delinquent. The Amendment would also allow a one year redemption period rather than the current 2 years, if these properties are tax delinquent for at least one year.

Illinois law already provides for multiple notices to delinquent owners and court procedures before a tax deed can be obtained. This Amendment would not change these protective notices or court procedures.

Punch the number opposite "YES" or "NO" to indicate your choice.

Check It Out

by GLORIA DAVIS
Entertainment Editor

Film Review

Like a Gershwin movie or a master sculptor's masterpiece, "Avalon" is Barry Levinson's latest work of art.

He uses his camera like a paintbrush, often inserting misty, surrealistic touches, touches that make this a very special movie.

The movie opens with the first generation of a Russian Jewish family arriving in America. One of the Kazinski brothers arrives in Baltimore on the Fourth of July and is spellbound with the "City of Light," arising out of an old fashioned holiday celebration.

He finds his three brothers who arrived in the U. S. A. before him. They are living in Avalon, hence the movie's name.

The movie is at its best when telling of the closeness of the immigrant family as they bring more and more relatives over to the land of plenty. Their successes and their losses, as well as their loves are the story.

The contrast between the Thanksgiving dinners of the 1930s and '40's and those of the 1950's and '60's is the story of the dwindling of family closeness and tradition.

Although everything about this movie is top notch, from Levinson's direction to the performances of Elizabeth Perkins, Aidan Quinn and the rest of the cast, this is not the kind of entertainment that adds up to a fun night out.

It is important entertainment meant more as an emotional and learning experience, full of nostalgia.

For a movie of its type, we rate this one 4.8 out of five stars. It would be perfect with just a few lighter touches here and there.

'Dracula'

'Me and My Girl' sets Lincolnshire opening

"Me and My Girl," featuring the international dance craze of 1937 - The Lambeth Walk, is coming to Marriott's Lincolnshire Theatre Nov. 7 through Jan. 27.

Winner of three Tony Awards, five Drama Desk Awards and London's Laurence Olivier Award for best musical of the year, "Me and My Girl" first premiered in London in 1937. Written by Noel Gay with book and lyrics by L. Arthur Rose and Douglas Thurber, it was remounted in London in 1985 by Gay's son and on Broadway in 1986, where it played for four years to sold-out audiences.

Discovered to be the long-lost Earl of Hareford, Bill Snibson (Jeff Award winner Gene Weygandt), a Cockney bloke who wears a busker's checked suit, a brown bowler and a cigarette or two tacked behind his ears, must acquire the manners suitable to the heir of centuries-old Hareford Hall. His aunt, Maria (Ann Stevenson Whitney), a most sympathetic duchess, sets out to groom Bill for the job. However, there are two obstacles to his fortune - one is Sally (Mary Ernster) his socially inadequate girlfriend and the other is Lady Jacqueline (Pamela Harden) a predatory, money-hungry aristocrat. But with the help of an unexpected Cupid, Sir John Tremayne (Joel Hatch), Lambeth love wins out.

"Me and My Girl" also features Ronald Keaton as Sir Jasper, Jonathan Weir as Charles, Don Forston as Parchester, David Lewman as Gerald and ensemble performances by Kyle Baker, Mary Bills, James Braet, Terry James, Susan Johnson, Andrew J. Lupp, Philip Masterson, Renee Matthews, Karen Rahn, Rob Rahn, Jill Walmsley and James Zager.

With its lilting songs and sweet and silly love story, "Me and My Girl" is a nostalgic musical reminiscent of more innocent times. It helps us remember that there is not better reason to sing and dance than the love between a guy and his girl.

Produced by Kary M. Walker, "Me and My Girl" is directed by Joe Leonardo and choreographed by Eric Hoyt. Designers include sets by Thomas M. Ryan, costumes by Nancy Missimi, lighting by Diane Ferry-Williams, sound by Randy Allen Johns and props by Kathy Klaisner. Musical direction is by Paul Raiman.

by GLORIA DAVIS
Lakeland Newspapers

The Independent Players of Elgin have kicked-off their 1990-91 Season with Robert Harling's, "Steel Magnolias."

The show will run on Friday and Saturday evenings, at 8 p.m., through Nov. 3.

Jeanne Haight of Hawthorn Woods has the coveted role of M'Lynn played by Sally Fields in the movie. Haight has lived in Hawthorn Woods for 17 years and has been active in her community with volunteering at the Elgin Twp. Library and Meals for Wheels on her community service list.

She has been acting since 1968 when she won the lead role in "Sweetheart's" being done by a theater group in St. Paul, Minn.

She has been busy with the Best of Broadway Players in Palatine and the Des Plaines Theatre Guild.

Haight enjoyed playing the role of Ethel Banks in "Barefoot In The Park," for four months at the Orchard Theatre in Mt. Prospect.

Other favorite roles include Lady Thiang in "The King and I", Ann in "Forty Carats" and Mouse in "The Velveteen Rabbit" with the Papai Players at the Orchard Theatre.

Jeanne isn't the only Haight that dabbles in show business. Her husband, Dave, is a member of the Palatine Concert Band, the Dixieland Jazz Band and he's a reed man with The Golden Nuggets.

Heller new artistic boss for Bowen Park Theatre

by GLORIA DAVIS
Lakeland Newspaper

The new artistic director of the Bowen Park Theatre Co. in Waukegan, based at the Jack Benny Center, is Mark Heller.

Heller, who lives in Newport Twp. just outside of Antioch, is the co-owner of a family hardware business in Northbrook.

He comes by his dedication to the theater by way of a bachelor of fine arts degree earned at the University of Arizona.

Locally he has been involved in productions in many capacities at the PM&L Theatre in Antioch, the Potawatomi Players at the Genesee Theatre in Waukegan, besides his activity at Bowen.

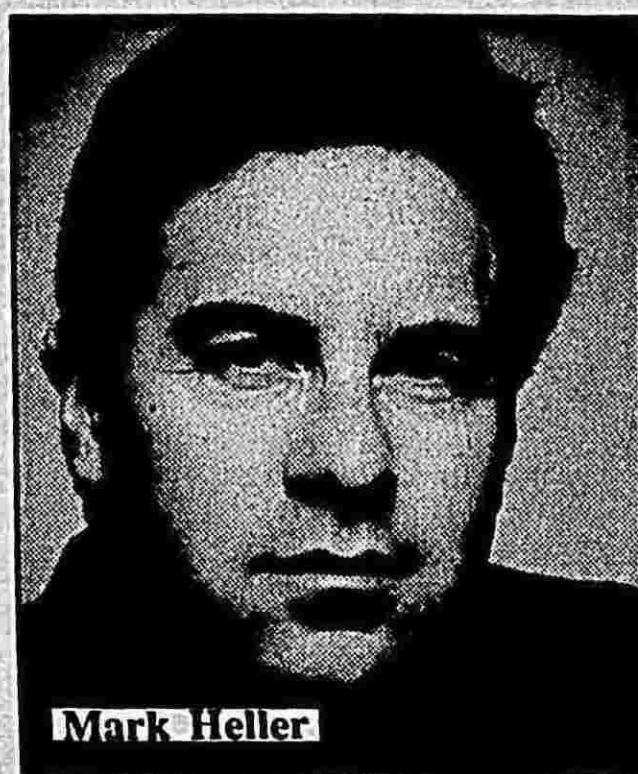

Heller comes to Lake County after some professional theatrical appearances in Chicago and a stint as a stand-up comedian in Los Angeles.

His first appearance at Bowen came under the direction of its former artistic director, Ken Smouse, in the Moliere farce, "A School for Wives."

His credits also include directing "The Importance of Being Ernest" for the Bowen Theatre Co.

Heller is excited about Bowen's latest production, on stage just in time for Halloween, "Dracula," the classic horror tale.

When Smouse asked Heller to take Bowen over while he freed himself for other endeavors, "I knew it would be a lot of work, but so far, the results are good."

New Orleans offers fun, food and history galore

by JIM WARNKEN, PRESIDENT
NORTH STAR TRAVEL, INC.

A winter vacation to most of us conjures up images of warm sunny beaches in Florida or maybe the Bahamas. There are those who are looking for summer like temperatures, but something more than a nice tan. New Orleans may be just the ticket.

Winter temperatures in New Orleans range from day time highs in the 80's dropping to the upper 60's at night. The warm weather is only a bonus to all this Mississippi River town has to offer.

Probably the most famous section of New Orleans is the historic French Quarter. I found this part of the city to have two personalities.

Nighttime in the French Quarter is strictly for the party animals! Bourbon Street is where it all happens. At night the entire street becomes a pedestrian mall. No, it's more than that. It's one big all-night block party! I was recently on this street the night before the New Orleans Saints played the Tampa Bay Buccaneers. Not a place for an amateur party person.

On Sunday morning the French Quarter is quiet again. This is the best time for a walk through this old French neighborhood. Start with coffee and beignet (The official Louisiana state donut) at the famous Cafe du Monde. It's located on Decatur St. between the Jax Brewery and the French Market. Then take one of the many horse drawn carriages parked along Jackson Square for a Sunday ride. Want to pickup a sweet snack for later in the day? Forget the over priced pralines sold in the little shops. Instead buy a couple of giant (still over priced but good) pralines from the old black lady who has a card table set up next to Jax Brewery.

Final tip. Unless you plan to just see only downtown New Orleans, don't stay in the French Quarter. Hotels are expensive, traffic is heavy and parking is impossible. I stay in Metairie about half way between New Orleans and the airport. It's a good base for side trips.

Bus stops at Barat

William Inge's "Bus Stop" is the next production on stage at Barat College, Lake Forest. Show dates are Nov. 16 and 17 at 8 p.m., Nov. 18 at 3 p.m. and Nov. 30 and Dec. 1 at 8 p.m. The play will be performed in the Hilton Theatre, on the Barat campus at Sheridan and Westleigh Rds., Lake Forest. Tickets are $9 for general admission and $7 for students and seniors.

In the comedy, a bus out of Kansas City stops at a diner in the middle of a snowstorm. Roads are blocked and the travelers will have to stay till morning. Each of the characters comes to terms with an aspect of their life during the stay.

Cast members include: Amy Wildey of Lake Zurich as waitress Elma Duckworth; Alicia Hall of Moorpark, Calif. as cafe owner Grace Hoyland; Bill Dunbar of Northbrook as Sheriff Will Masters; Shannon Norris of Northbrook as the singer Cherie; Jason Clark of Waukegan as Professor Gerald Lyman; Steve Martin of Mundelein as Carl the bus driver; Christopher Miller of Carbondale as ranch hand Virgil Blessing; and Michael Cain of Zion as cowboy Bo Decker.

The play is being directed by JoAnne Muth, assistant professor of acting and voice at Barat. Kelly Jean McDuff, a sophomore from Bollingbrook, is the assistant director.

Baker and wife

Hollis Reznick, foreground, and Lee Strawn star in "The Baker's wife" now playing at the Apple Tree Theatre.

'Baker's Wife' breezy

by TOM WITOM

In "The Baker's Wife," playwright Stephen Schwartz presents a simple but appealing recipe for a breezy little musical.

And in the hands of Highland Park's Apple Theatre Company, the production rises to glorious heights as its 14-member cast enthusiastically explores the ups and downs of love and marriage.

Set in 1935, the story focuses on the dangers of a May-December match and how its success or failure can disrupt the lives of a small French village.

Hollis Reznick, a three-time Jeff Award winner who played Fantine in "Les Misérables," is featured in the title role as the comely young wife who decides she wants more spice in her life than her kindly middle-aged husband has to offer. She briefly succumbs to the charms of a starry-eyed suitor, but later comes to her senses. In a poignant song ("Where's the Warmth?") she acknowledges the physical comfort of her youthful lover but finds it's insufficient without the emotional support.

Lee Strawn also gives a strong acting performance as the baker as he kneads flour, water and leavening into loaves of bread and later drowns himself in remorse at the sudden disappearance of his spouse. But his gifts in the vocal department are more sparing, and try as he might, the effort, however sincere, comes up short.

Kathy Taylor, on the other hand, as the wife of the bistro owner, is most pleasing in her silky smooth opening ("Chanson") and closing numbers.

"The Baker's Wife" will run through Nov. 4 at Apple Tree, 593 Elm Place, Highland Park. Information is available at (708) 432-4335.

Face in burning house ghost, shadows or joke?

by GLORIA DAVIS
Lakeland Newspapers

Russell Badtke, owner of the Wilmot Cafe in Wilmot didn't know that a simple bit of picture taking might lead to a real life ghost story.

The century old Kopisch house in Wilmot had been condemned by the township in the late 1980s after thoughts of declaring it an historical monument had been abandoned, so the Wilmot Fire Dept. set to burning down the dilapidated house right across from Wilmot High School.

Badtke snapped some pictures of the blazing structure. It wasn't until he picked up the photos at the drugstore that he noticed something strange.

There, in the window of the flaming house, was a distinct man's face.

Badtke had the picture blown up to see if the face ("probably made by shadows, flames and smoke") would disappear.

This newspaper actually blew the picture up 400 percent and the face just became larger and more distinct.

The man in the burning window has a girls, Rose, Marie and Lizzie, after their parents died.

Although the 1900s marched on, the three single gentle-ladies never quite made the century's turn. They never married and after Uncle Chris departed, they continued to live alone in the Eric old frame house that was never adorned with electricity or central heating.

Until the 1960s, the Kopisch girls were a familiar sight as they wended their way down Wilmot's streets in ankle length skirts and bonnets, a sight out of Godey's Ladies' Book, on their way to Kriska's

Sharon Robinson guest at symphony performance

Winner of the prestigious Aery Fisher Recital Award, Cellist Sharon Robinson will join Maestro Paul Anthony McRae and the Lake Forest Symphony on Nov. 2 and 3, for performances of Dvorak's "Cello Concerto in B minor." The concerts will also feature the "Symphony No. 2" in D major by Sibelius.

Robinson has performed with major orchestras throughout the world including the Minnesota Orchestra, the Scottish Chamber Orchestra and the Helsinki Philharmonic. She has played concert tours in Australia, Europe, and the United States, and performed at Carnegie Hall with Isaac Stern and Yo Yo Ma.

In addition to tours of Europe and the United States this season, Robinson will perform at Carnegie Hall's 100th anniversary concert celebration. She will also help Isaac Stern celebrate his 70th birthday with the San Francisco Symphony.

The Lake Forest Symphony's 1990-91 concert season opened Oct. 5 and subscriptions are still available for the remaining five pairs of concerts. A wide variety of music will be featured including an "All Gershwin" night in March.

Sharon Robinson

"I am thrilled to be able to extend our season series this year and entice these world-class guest artists. This will be the greatest season ever for the Lake Forest Symphony!" exclaimed McRae.

Upcoming concerts and guest artists include pianist Christopher O'Riley on Nov. 30 and Dec. 1, violinist Benny Kim on Jan. 25 and 26, 1991, pianist Jeffrey Siegel on March 15 and 16 for the "All Gershwin" night and violinist Elmar Oliveira on April 26 and 27, 1991.

Season subscription are $100 per person and single tickets are $23. Group rates and student rush prices are also available. All performances begin at 8 p.m., and are held at Rhoades Auditorium, Chicago Medical School, 3333 Green Bay Rd., North Chicago. For more information call (708)295-2135.

Is the face in the window of the burning Kopisch house the ghost of the father, Uncle Chris or one of the Kopisch sisters' secret paramours?

turn-of the century look with long hair, a Roman nose and a mustache, trimmed in the style of days gone by.

The firemen claim that they were sure that the house was empty. John Schnurr, who grew up in Wilmot, told this newspaper that the face in the picture somewhat resembled an "Uncle Chris" who came to live with the three Kopisch girls when their parents died.

The story behind the Kopisch house lends itself well to our weird Halloween tale.

The Kopisch family moved into the house in question just before the 1800s gave way to a new century.

An Uncle Chris moved in with the three meat market to buy a half-pound of hamburger.

In the winter time, the patinaed old frame structure was almost completely dark after sundown, as the kerosene lamps burned dimly.

While the sisters got up in age, the men of Wilmot kept an eye on the little ladies lest their wood burning stove should go out during the cold weather.

By 1964, one of the sisters had passed away and the other two were taken to nursing homes, no longer able to care for themselves.

For over 20 years the creaky old building remained empty (or so everyone thought), looking as much like a real haunted house as the one in Hitchcock's "Psycho."

Now the Kopisch family is history, the house is gone, but the mystery still remains.

As witches are flying, goblins are shrilling and black cats and bats are sending chills along everyone's spine, in the homes in Wilmot, they tell of Wilmot's very own ghost.

Who was he, a reincarnation of the Kopisch sisters' father or Uncle Chris, or was he a secret paramour kept hidden by one or all of our gentle-ladies?

Forest board spars over Lakewood addition buy

Lake County Forest Preserve member Robert Neal came under fire from his colleagues at the last board meeting for making statements that the Forest Preserve forced a landowner to sell land.

"The Forest Preserve caused the bankruptcy," Neal said. "Mr. Graham knows how they put this man through and stopped him from doing anything with his property."

"You made a serious charge and I would like to see some documentation. I'd like to see your evidence. It's easy to throw a bucket of water at somebody, it's something else to document it," Dist. 6 Board member Bruce Hansen said.

Neal, of Dist. 3, had said the Forest Preserve caused the bankruptcy of Pete Tekampe. Part of Tekampe's property, which lies adjacent to the Lakewood Forest Preserve near Wauconda.

"The landowner wanted to annex to Wauconda and wanted to sell it and develop it. Parts of the land is floodplain and wetland," Lake County Board member F.T. "Mike" Graham.

"Consider the source of the statements," Dist. 2 Board member John Bahlen said.

The vote to purchase the 40 acres for $212,500 was approved 16-5.

The Forest Preserve took action on some $6 million worth of property during the hour-long meeting.

Highlights included:

-A 204.13 acre addition to the Grant Forest Preserve, located south of Rte. 132 and east of Rtes. 59-132.

-Approved purchase of 15.9 and 13 acres as part of the Stateline Forest Preserve near Zion.

-Approved the purchase in the amount of $270,000 for 20.38 acres of the Duck Farm preserve.

-Approved several land buys in the Middlefork Savanna. These included payments of $676,000 and $1,000.

In non land purchasing matters, the board approved a proposal by an 18-2 vote for an engineering service contract with Woodhouse Architects of Chicago. The firm will be studying space needs at the Forest Preserve headquarters in Libertyville.

The board approved the levy for 1990-91 for $11,774,933 Board President C. Richard Anderson said the finance committee will consider the report in two to three months.

A contract for construction of a maintenance building, ranger station, storage bins and site work at Wright Woods Forest Preserve in Lincolnshire was approved. Boller Construction of Gurnee won the bid for a total of $320,430.

Two one and one-half ton dump trucks were approved for purchase by the maintenance department from Hoskins Chevrolet in Elk Grove Village at a cost of $27,300.

An ordinance to accept the proposal from Michael Glass Design, Inc. of Chicago, for signage and graphics was approved at a cost of $58,850.

YOUR HOROSCOPE

by Charles King Cooper

ARIES (March 21 to April 19) Watch errors in judgment in spending and an inclination to be extravagant. Partners may not be in agreement on financial interests. Others may be sweet about it, but they still won't let you have your way. It's a time for compromise to insure harmonious interaction.

TAURUS (April 20 to May 20) Whether to work hard or to get away from it all may be a hard decision for you to make now. Try to overcome a tendency to indecisiveness. You may meet with some jealousy in the romance/friendship department. Overall, it's not the best time for complete harmony.

GEMINI (May 21 to June 20) Rather than making business an issue with family members, it may be best to go along with their wishes. Don't have too many irons in the fire. There may be some sensitive types to deal with now. It's hard to be totally at peace when others are being temperamental.

CANCER (June 21 to July 22) There may be some financial complications to deal with now and you won't like one offer of assistance that has some strings attached. Safeguard assets. You may switch sides in the middle of an argument and still find yourself at odds with another person.

LEO (July 23 to August 22) Others may adopt different tactics in an effort to make you change your mind. It's not all that important, but it may be somewhat wearing. Cope. Social life may be a trifle hectic now. Not everyone you meet will be to your liking. Beware of awkward small talk.

VIRGO (August 23 to September 22) A family member may want to be included at something at which you'd rather be alone. Some compromises are necessary to keep everyone at peace. You can't place too much stock in what others have to say now. Unfortunately, you'll have to listen to it too.

LIBRA (September 23 to October 22) Some behind-the-scenes luck spurs you on to greater achievement. Don't be in such a rush, though, that you fail to listen to others carefully. You'll both give and receive now. You believe in what you're doing now, and that is why you are so effective.

SCORPIO (October 23 to November 21) The encouragement of others fosters your ambitions. There is much that you'll be doing now of a private nature. Research investment matters. You may have to put up with others' idiosyncrasies, but overall, it's a favorable time for social relationships.

SAGITTARIUS (November 22 to December 21) A break comes now, but don't drop everything to celebrate. Quick action is needed to capitalize on an opportunity. Keep a step ahead. It's nice to have converts, but don't expect everyone to agree with you. Still, you will succeed now, with or without the support of others.

CAPRICORN (December 22 to January 19) It's one of those times when money makes money. New opportunities bring out your resourcefulness. Home matters are also accentuated in a positive manner. Others agree with you, and this gives added impetus to your plans for just the two of you.

AQUARIUS (January 20 to February 18) Things move along quickly and positively for you at home and on the job. Don't be picky, but still remember to get your money's worth. Some good news gives you added zest for life and the enjoyment of it. You're the prime mover when it comes to arranging entertainment.

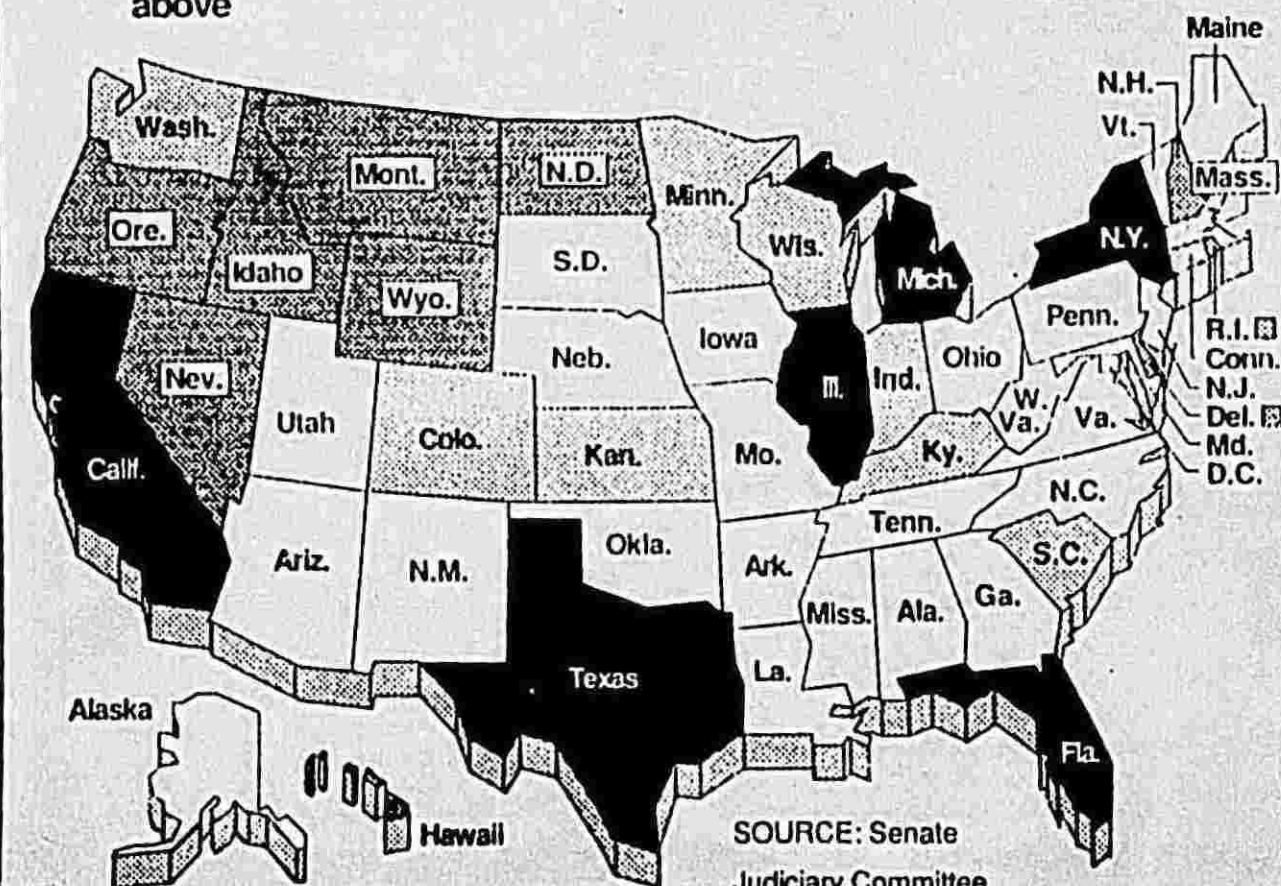

PISCES (February 19 to March 20) Domestic developments are positive, but you may have mixed feelings about having company over. You may find a real bargain for the home. A change in a business appointment just gives you increased time for socializing. Participate in activities and fun events.

Trucks made more like a home away from home

Truck manufacturers are relying more and more on ergonomics, or human factors engineering, to design truck cabs that are more efficient, safe and comfortable for drivers.

In designing trucks, ergonomic concerns include driver visibility, seat location, steering wheel design, suspension and ease of turning.

But these drivability considerations must be coordinated with other important factors including maintenance and costs. With the average truck tractor priced at $60,000 the buyer must be convinced that each new feature will improve productivity.

The truck's cab is the driver's "office." On a long haul he or she may spend many hours behind the wheel with few opportunities to stretch or move around. As more women join the drivers' ranks, truck makers try hard to accommodate the range of driver heights and arm and leg lengths.

The instruments must be where everyone within the driving population can see them, read them and use them. There is a need to reduce shifting efforts for all drivers. A driver may shift gears hundreds, even thousands of times, during an eight-hour shift. How tired he or she is at the end of a day depends primarily on clutching and shifting.

Great care is taken to ensure that the driver has an easy reach to switches and controls, especially those for speed and braking systems. Designers must not only place controls in the best spot, they must ensure that switches won't be triggered accidentally by cab vibration.

Manufacturers use a variety of approaches to improve truck designs. At PACCAR Inc., designers sought advice from mountain climbers on how to make it safer getting in and out of truck cabs. In such maneuvers, the climbers warned, drivers should always have three points of contact with the truck.

At General Motors Corp., truck drivers join the engineers and designers of GM's Advanced Truck Engineering Staff to see that driver insights and experience are factored into ergonomic design improvements.

Ergonomics and driver in-put have resulted in the growing use of the tilt steering column in trucks. Tilt wheels have not been standard in trucks as they have in cars, but we're seeing more and more of them. It's another example of design changes to make trucks fit a broad range of drivers.

The influence of ergonomics is evident in other truck cab improvement. Among them:

•A smaller 18-inch two-spoke steering wheel, which makes it easier for drivers to see the instrument panel.

•The widespread replacement of conventional driver seats with new versions featuring more lumbar support and other orthopedic improvements.

•Low-pivot pedals, which reduce fatigue by shortening the leg lift required by each application.

•Improved suspension, reducing vibration within the cab.

Evolutionary, not revolutionary, such truck design improvements are producing a more "driver-friendly" working environment. Although ergonomic changes aren't readily apparent to the motoring public, they have made the insides of today's new truck tractor vastly different from its counterpart of just a decade ago.

Use retreaded tires, help the environment

Every year millions of scrap tires add to the billions of tires already over-flowing at our landfills. The use of retreaded tires can help to reduce this growing problem. And retread help conserve oil since tires are mostly petroleum-based. Thanks to retreaded tires, America is able to save over 400 million gallons of oil every year.

Retreaded tires have the same safety and performance characteristics as comparable new tires, which is why retreads are used by every major airline, fire engines and other emergency vehicles, school buses, taxis, all kinds of trucks and millions of automobiles.

Here are some interesting facts you may not know, from the Tire Retread Information Bureau:

- Retreads are available in all radial sizes and designs.

- Retreads are an excellent investment and are widely used on 4x4's, pick-up trucks and recreational vehicles.

- More retreaded snow tires are sold than new snow tires. Retreaded snow tires will often outperform new snow tires on icy roads.

- When shopping for retreads, it's a good idea to comparison shop and to ask for a written warranty. The warranty on a retreaded tire will often be better than that offered on a comparable new tire.

Once you have retread installed on your vehicle, be certain the wheels are properly aligned and check the tire pressure regularly,

Fall Foliage

Winter tips for fall gardeners

Although fall is an ideal time to garden, many gardeners should take a few moments and prepare for the winter season. Here are a few tips from the Garden Council to think about while "tooling" around the yard:

Fall is an excellent time to test winter power equipment. Better safe than sorry once the snow sets in. Try not to use ice-melting pellets on sidewalks or driveways where the snow will eventually be shoveled or blown into the yard. The salt residue can damage the lawn.

Winter is also the perfect time to catch up on your reading, especially all the gardening catalogs that you've received throughout the year.

What better time to browse through nursery catalogs and select disease-resistant plants for next year's yard and garden, and make sure the plants are hardy to your region. Don't forget that items from catalogs make excellent holiday gifts as well.

Also, fall is an excellent time to talk with your local lawn and garden center or extension agent to discuss ideas for spring gardens.

CLC board gets report

The College of Lake County 1989-1990 annual report was presented to the CLC Board of Trustees at the monthly board meeting held Oct. 16 on the Grayslake campus.

The report entitled "Groundwork" features a letter from the Board of Trustees Chairperson Nan Fairhurst and also a letter from CLC President Daniel J. LaVista. In her letter, Fairhurst stated that CLC entered the decade of the 1990s with a year of work which focused on planning and organizational development to ensure that the college is prepared to meet the changing needs of Lake County.

For only the third time in the college's history, the mission of the college was significantly revised. The revised changes more specifically outline CLC's commitment to economic development in the area. It also clearly states the value the college places on an international and multicultural perspective within a liberal education. A global perspective and the way CLC relates to a much larger picture are also the focus of the report.

Fairhurst described this year as a "shirt-sleeves year." The 1989-1990 year was one of working and planning to meet the demands of a growing community. Fairhurst, along with the other members of the board of trustees are convinced that the county will benefit from the groundwork laid at CLC this year.

In his letter, LaVista said that important time was spent laying the groundwork for the 1990's in several areas. New staff was hired to strengthen some departments. A new governance system was implemented to encourage staff and student participation in the decision-making process. Important groundwork was laid through significant initiatives addressed at state and federal levels of government. In addition, the college became involved in the K-12 educational system in Lake County. In cooperation with the Office of the Regional Superintendent of Schools, CLC implemented two programs designed to keep at-risk youth in school. In his monthly report to the board, LaVista said, "This annual report characterizes the intense growth at CLC and in the county."

The efforts the college has made to broaden the international scope of the curriculum were noted. Also noted was the role of the college is playing in supporting the area's economic development. One such example is Lisa Daddono of Buffalo Grove. Daddono requested assistance from the College of Lake County's Small Business Development Center to purchase a Highwood studio where she studied and taught dance. With some free help from the SBDC, Daddono now owns and operates the North Shore School of Dance. In the past year the SBDC has helped secure over $2 million in loans for small businesses.

Gaylis Ingram, director of counseling, presented the board with a staff report. Ingram identified and explained some of the services offered by the counseling department. These were career counseling/planning, educational planning and social development. "We place a great deal of emphasis on supporting students in the classroom and on personal development," she said.

The board voted on a 19 percent increase in the estimated Equalized Value Assessment growth for the 1990 tax levy. A public hearing to approve the proposed property tax levy in-

Dear Voter:

Your Support ... in the November 6 election is respectfully solicited and gratefully appreciated.

For three successive years, I have received a legislative award from the Illinois Environmental Council. Whether as a citizen in the community or an employee in the workplace, you have the right to a safe and healthy environment.

Recently, I fought to stop a concrete and asphalt-crushing business in Park City. Also, I sponsored the Community and Worker Right to Know law to alert you to chemical and toxic hazards.

Too many lives have been lost from environmental abuses or neglect. I pledge my continued vigilance to work for a healthy environment.

Four generations of Ringa's

The Ringa Funeral Home located in Lake Villa on Rt. 83, was built in 1959. Four generations of Ringa's have been in the funeral business starting with great grandfather Adam in 1895. Continuing with the business would be the fifth generation (Bob Jr. sons) and it's a bit too early for that decision.

Four generations of Ringa's offer complete service

by STEPHANIE ENGLE
Lakeland Newspapers

Robert Ringa, Sr. says "you have to genuinely enjoy what you're doing in order to be successful" and he says he really enjoys his business.

Ringa owns and operates the Ringa Funeral Home at 122 S. Milwaukee Ave. (Rte. 83) in Lake Villa and he says that is why his business is so successful.

"When we combine this enjoyment of our job with professionalism, quality service and maintenance, you can't help being successful," Ringa says.

The Ringa Funeral Home has been in the family since 1895 and Ringa Sr. is the third family member to run the business.

"My grandfather, Adam, got the first license in 1895 and the business was passed on to my father, Frank. As I grew up, I learned to appreciate how important a funeral home's services are to family and friends after the death of a loved one."

Ringa's son, Robert Jr., helps run the home, although "Bob Jr. pretty much runs everything now," Ringa said.

Both Bob Sr. and Bob Jr. graduated from the Worsham School of Mortuary Science in Chicago, although Bob Jr. also graduated from the University of Denver with a degree in business administration.

Bob Jr. has two sons and although the Ringas would love for them to take over the business someday, "we will not pressure them into doing so because they have to want to take over, or the service wouldn't be the same," Bob Sr. said.

The Ringa Funeral Home originated in Chicago and grew to four homes. Over the years, as the buildings grew older, they were closed and Robert Ringa moved out to Lake Villa and opened the current home in 1959.

"This building was constructed for a funeral home. It isn't a remodeled house that was converted into a funeral home," he said.

The home includes two and a half chapels, one showroom, a six-car garage, office, lounge, family room, preparation room and living quarters for the Ringas.

The Ringas take pride in the fact they offer complete service.

"We offer all services connected to the profession. For instance, we deal with out-of-town shipments, cremation and sea burials. We also offer after-service counselling. Our service does not end the day of the funeral. We help our customers answer questions even after the funeral, and if we can't answer their questions, we advise them where they can go to get the answers," Ringa said.

Business is going very well and Ringa says this is a result of the family name, reputation and professional service.

As for the future, Ringa says no drastic changes are in sight.

"As the saying goes, if something isn't broken, don't fix it. We'll just keep doing what we're good at and continue on because there will always be a need for our type of services. We like to help people in their time of need and I get a lot of satisfaction knowing I have helped someone," Ringa concludes.

The tax outlook for next year bleak

by ALAN NODOLNA

If we all make tax planning a routine activity, instead of waiting until April, we can find many ways to lessen the impact of inevitable taxes. With higher taxes quite probable in the coming years, this will become even more important.

Many informed observers feel that raising the top tax bracket from 28 to 33 percent is a good probability for tax action. It has been estimated that extending the 33 percent bracket to income above $162,770 for a couple filing jointly (or above $97,620 for a single taxpayer) would raise $3.8 billion next year, according to the Congressional Budget Office (CBO).

The overall tax reduction goal for 1991 is $50 billion - $25 billion from new tax revenues and $25 billion from spending cuts. This cut may seem small, but it impacts a fairly small percent of the total taxpayer population and might be politically neutral. No matter what members of Congress tell the folks back home, the widespread notion that the richest taxpayers are getting a break under current tax law is nonsense. The highest earners pay a flat 28 percent on their taxable income - the highest tax effective personal tax rate of all.

A cut in the capital gains tax from the current 28 percent to perhaps 20 percent has been discussed for some time. If may seem strange that a tax cut would be revenue raiser, but this type of cut could generate $3.2 billion in new revenue largely from taxpayers who have delayed cashing in on profits from investments.

Other possible 1991:

It is likely that there will be increases in the taxes on tobacco and alcohol. These will cause no real political backlash, and will likely have a significant impact on increasing revenues. The Congressional Budget Office estimates that doubling the cigarette tax to 32 cents a pack and increasing liquor levies to about 25 cents per ounce of alcohol would bring in $10 billion in 1991. In our current society, smoking has clearly fallen out of favor and alcohol consumption has become far less glamorous.

A broad based energy levy is presently under study. This is considered a favorable substitute for a gasoline tax which is regionally from 9.1 cents a gallon to 21.1 cents, would raise $12.1 billion in 1991.

One tax that has been under discussion is the one on sales of securities. This transfer tax is strongly opposed by Rep. Dan Rostenkowski, chairman of the House Ways and Means Committee. It is not likely that this measure will pass in the near future.

Environmental taxes are very popular now in Congress. They generate a lot of revenue and they are hidden in the sense that most consumers don't realize that they exist and they add very little to the price on individual consumer goods. Congressional people can defend these taxes to their constituents on the bases that the environment or atmosphere must be cleansed.

One argument in favor of so-called consumption taxes is that they tend to decrease consumption and encourage savings. This makes it easier to finance the deficit.

Of course it is possible that there will be no tax bill. The Gramm-Rudman-Hollings automatic budget cuts would take effect. This is politically very difficult since the costs would be large and would apply across the board. This means that politically sensitive spending programs like those for AIDS research, the war on drugs and environmental clean up would be cut along with military spending.

It may be that we will have new legislation in September, in time for the start of the new federal fiscal year, starting on Oct. 1.

Just as likely is a delay to after the November elections. In either case it is hopeful that the changes will be in place in time for year-end planning for 1991.

Editor's note: Alan Nodolna is the consultant for Pacific Financial, Chicago, financial advisors to corporations and individuals.

This Way to Wealth sensitive. This BTU legislation (British Thermal Unit) is difficult to write because of the many industries it affects. The projected revenue from a broad-based five percent energy-consumption tax is $14.2 billion in 1991, according to the CBO. The federal gas tax, if raised posed by Rep. Dan Rostenkowski, chairman of the House Ways and Means Committee. It is not likely that this measure will pass in the near future.

Environmental taxes are very popular now in Congress. They generate a lot of revenue and they are hidden in the sense that

Hamilton Partners opens Phase I of Riverwalk

Hamilton Partners has opened Phase One of Riverwalk, a 12-story, glass-and-granite building in northwest suburban Buffalo Grove. Located on a 36-acre parcel at the northeast corner of Milwaukee Ave., and Lake Cook Rd., the 250,000-square-foot structure is connected to a two-story, 20,000-square-foot retail concourse. Also connected to the tower is an enclosed pedestrian walkway with skylights leading to a five-story parking garage for 800 vehicles. Pepper Construction, Co., Chicago, is the general contractor. To help celebrate the opening of the building, Hamilton sponsored, "A Taste of Riverwalk." Area restaurants provided their menu specialties to invited guests, some of whom included village officials, brokers, and executives from Zenith Data Systems, the building's lead tenant with 56 percent of the tower's space. Hamilton Partners is a privately held real estate development and investment firm that owns, manages and leases approximately 16 million square feet of commercial facilities in the Chicago area.

LINDSAY

400-03 LINDSAY
By Landmark Designs

The tri-level Lindsay is a medium-sized contemporary home designed to be dug into a gentle slope. Garage and entry hall are on the ground level, family living areas are half a flight up, and the bedrooms another half-flight up.

A cantilevered upper story, which extends about four feet wider than the garage at the front and back, creates eye-catching exterior angles. While the two massive brick columns, one supporting the upper level overhand, give the casual passerby yet another unusual feature to digest. This design feature not only works, visually, but imparts a feeling of classic solidity.

Instead of creating a rectangular kitchen/nook combination, the designer angled one side of the room, giving unique shapes to both the spacious nook and the living room/dining room. This large room has a high ceiling, which could be vaulted. In the kitchen, the section results in an additional spread of counter space that could easily be adapted as a home computer center and/or build-in desk. Or it could also be an open pantry. A tiny pocket laundry room and half bath are conveniently placed and a half-circular deck or patio is accessed through sliding glass windows that brighten the nook.

The half-round window atop double windows that look out from the front of the house gives a touch of elegance to a master suite with a large walk-in closet. For a study plan of the LINDSAY (400-03), send $5.00 to Landmark Designs, P.O. Box 2307, Eugene, OR 97402. (Be sure to specify plan name & number when ordering). Designers, Architects and readers with plans they would like to see featured also are invited to contact Landmark.

Lake Villa

The youth groups of Lindenhurst area churches will "Trick-or-Treat-So-Others-Can-Eat" to benefit the Lake Villa Twp. Food Pantry. On Wednesday, Oct. 31, the regular Halloween Trick-or-Treat date in this community between 6 and 7 p.m., they will trick-or-treat for non-perishable food items. Following this, they will gather at St. Mark Lutheran Church on Grand Ave. for games and pizza which will be donated by the Lindenhurst Pizza Hut. "We really appreciate the support from the kids and the community," said Carole Makela of the LVT Food Pantry. "Our food supplies are low because of area families need for assistance and we definitely can benefit from a community activity like this." Annette Van Zeyl of St. Mark Lutheran Church said, "This is the second year we have done this. The kids have a lot of fun while also gaining a sense of accomplishment from their efforts. We also hope to make this an annual event with more community participation every year." Pizza Hut in Lindenhurst has donated pizzas for the youth to share at the conclusion of the evening in an ecumenical Halloween party. Trick-or-treaters will be wearing a name badge showing their church name. Among the churches participating are St. Mark Lutheran Church, Trinity United Methodist Church and Millburn Congregational United Church of Christ. Anyone desiring more information may contact Pastor McKnight at (708)356-8140 or Jim O'Neal at (708)356-6676.

Opportunity knocks for Round Lake, Grayslake

by STEVE PETERSON
Lakeland Newspapers

For both teams, the Grayslake-Round Lake clash Oct. 26 will mean an opportunity.

For Grayslake, the game will mean a chance to finish with the first Northwest Suburban Conference championship in decades.

For Round Lake, which is more used to finishing on top, the contest will be a chance to avenge last year's season-ending loss to Grayslake. Thousands are expected for the 7:30 game at Round Lake.

Grayslake, 6-2, and Round Lake, 7-1, both have playoff berths pretty well locked up.

"All of them are big games but this has to rank right up there with them. We want to be conference champs for the first time in 20 years," Grayslake Coach Bill Johnson said.

The night could be dubbed championship night as the Rams sophomore team will also be shooting for the crown in the 6 p.m. game.

Shutting down the Round Lake option attack, patterned after the pioneers of the option, Belvidere, is the chief task for the visitors.

"The most important thing for us is to contain the option. That is hard because of Horn (Garrett) and Rodriguez (Aric) and all the motion they use," Johnson said.

Round Lake is led by senior quarterback Mike Bragg, a three-year starter. Bragg has completed just over half of his passes, 44-for-81 for 625 yards and 10 touchdowns. Defenders have had a hard time intercepting the throws, as Bragg has thrown only four interceptions. He has also rushed for 313 yards in 58 carries and one touchdown.

The Panthers featured a balanced attack out of the option, which sometimes has included the no-huddle look. Horn has 86 carries for 700 yards and 14 touchdowns while Rodriguez is right behind at 84 carries for 566 yards and seven touchdowns. A fourth threat out of the backfield is Tom Minkalis, who has rushed 35 times for 360 yards and four scores.

Grayslake counts on Mark Sneyd and Travis Lloyd out of the backfield and Steve Siedlecki as the top receiver. Siedlecki caught a the game-winning touchdown pass against Johnsborg three weeks ago.

"The kicking game will decide the game," Round Lake mentor Mike Dunn said.

The Panthers feature Steve Pressoir as the punter, who averages 34 yards a boot. Grayslake coach Johnson has been complimentary of the efforts Sneyd has turned in as a punter.

"Culhane is as good a quarterback as I've seen run," Dunn said.

Both teams are coming off win streaks. Round Lake won its seventh straight with a 32-28 win at Marengo while Grayslake, winners of four straight, downed Lake Zurich 14-3.

Lake Zurich, looking for its first win of the season, scored first as P.G. Siegwald booted a 37 yard field goal in the first quarter.

Siedlecki scored from five yards out to give the Rams a 6-3 lead on the second play of the second quarter.

The Rams scored again as a Dave Marthouse fumble recovery led to a Sneyd touchdown run of 23 yards with 7:06 left in the second quarter.

For Marthouse, a junior, it was his first varsity start as he replaced Mark Corella, who was sick.

Meanwhile, Round Lake was having a shootout on its hands with a pesky Marengo team looking for a Homecoming win.

Round Lake led 13-0 in the second quarter as Horn scored on a 13-yard run and Brian Breski caught a 59 yard pass from Bragg. Marengo countered with a nine-yard TD pass from Glen Nelson to Mark Beebe before Horn scored his second TD of the night.

Two long touchdown pass from Bragg to Minkalis and from Minkalis to Bragg helped withstand two Indians scores in the fourth quarter.

"They were fired up and we made some crucial mistakes with penalties," Dunn said.

But now it is time for the neighborhood struggle and if the Panthers forget, all Dunn has to do is mention one score: Grayslake 20, Round Lake 15.

"Our kids have been waiting for this game for a year," Dunn said.

Round Lake football Coach Mike Dunn makes a point during another Panther win. Round Lake, 7-1 overall and 6-0 in the Northwest Suburban Conference, will host Grayslake, 6-2 and 5-1, Friday, Oct. 26. Game time is 7:30 p.m. Photo by Joe Shuman.

Skyhawks, Hurricanes battle for playoff spot

by STEVE PETERSON
Lakeland Newspapers

According to the football schedule, the first round of the 1990 playoffs will begin on Wednesday, Oct. 31.

At Johnsborg High School, though, the schedule has been altered a bit.

"We're considering this as our first playoff game. If we win, we're in, if we lose, we're out. This is just like a playoff game," Johnsborg Coach Hap Farlow said.

The Skyhawks travel to Woodstock to face Marian Central Oct. 26 in a 7:30 p.m. game. A playoff berth is at stake as both teams are 5-3.

Senior quarterback Matt Christman guides the Skyhawks and was effective in a 29-8 romp over Grant in a game which was decided by halftime. Christman also plays tight end for Johnsborg. He comes into the showdown with the Hurricanes completing 32 of 71 passes for 433 yards with five touchdowns. Top receivers are Mike Kramer and Chad Tapio with nine catches each.

Kramer, a senior, leads the team in rushing with 11 carries for 675 yards and nine touchdowns. Andy Davis, who scored the first touchdown against Grant, has 74 carries for 353 yards and two touchdowns and Rick Miller has carried 50 times for 227 yards. Christman has contributed 38 times on the ground for 69 yards.

"He has made improvement reading defenses and does a very good job picking out his receivers," Farlow said.

Christman, a linebacker on defense, also leads the Skyhawks at the other side of the ball with 21 solo tackles and 24 assists. Scott Malecki, another linebacker, has 21 tackles and 20 assists.

The Skyhawks, winners of just one of Farlow's first 18 games in the first two years, know the Hurricanes are improved after a 1-3 start. Marian is coming off a 14-0 win over Wauconda.

"They're an all purpose team. The key to success will be to keep pressure on their quarterback," Farlow said.

The Skyhawks have been strong in the give-away take-away category this year and the Grant game is no exception.

Tim Heumann picked off a pass on Grant's second play of the day, Malecki recovered a fumble and Adam Kloth blocked a punt. All in the first half.

All told, the Johnsborg defense has chalked up 12 fumble recoveries and 10 interceptions this fall.

Davis tallied the first Johnsborg score after the Skyhawks got the ball at the Grant 14.

A bad snap on a Grant punt led to the second Johnsborg score as Kramer tallied from five yards out with 5:56 left in the second quarter.

Dave Lawrence was credited with a safety when Grant QB Aaron Foszcz tried to throw a pass from the end zone for a 16-0 lead.

Christman scored from four yards out for the final first half tally.

Grant averted a Homecoming shutout in the fourth quarter when Rick Twarowski caught a 31 yard pass from Foszcz.

The Bulldogs, 3-5, have a chance to double their victory total of a year ago when they are at Marengo Oct. 26. The Bulldogs closed out last year's campaign with a win over the Indians.

The Bulldogs were without top running back Brett Moreley and Chris Alex, who quit the team. "It is hard to figure out what kids are thinking," Grant Coach Rob Kruse said.

Not at Johnsborg, where playoff time comes early.

Headed for paydirt

Johnsburg running back Andy Davis scores a second-quarter touchdown on a 14-yard run. Teammate Jake Wakitsch looks on. Johnsburg led 23-0 at halftime and won 29-8. Skyhawks host Marian Central Oct. 36 with a playoff bid at stake. Game time is 7:30 p.m.

Gollwitzer, Harscher make national golf meet

The College of Lake County golf team captured first place in the Skyway Conference meet and second at Division II meet. Golfers John Gollwitzer and Mike Harscher qualified for the national tournament.

The Lancers finished the Skyway play with 303 points, topping second place Elgin by 13 strokes.

Lake County was led in averages by Gollwitzer, who had a 75.2. Harscher had a 77.4. Over 80 were Jeff Saarela at 80.2, Phil Webb at 80.4, Ross Check and 80.6.

At Region IV competition, Blackhawk won the title with a score of 641, topping CLC's 648 in the meet at Fox Bend Golf Course in Oswego.

CLC honors included Harscher with a 81-78 159 score for first team all-region and Gollwitzer, who had a 76-86 162 for second team all region.

Third-seed Lancers set for volleyball sectional

The College of Lake County's women's volleyball team is hoping for a strong sectional performance and possible qualification for the regional tournament as post-season play begins next week.

The Lancers will host the winner of the Daley-Wright match Oct. 30 at 5 p.m. CLC comes into the tourney seeded third in the region behind Kankakee and Elgin.

The Lancers finished in third place in the Skyway Conference tourney at Morton. The team won the first three two-set, 11 point matches but split against Waubensee and McHenry before losing to Elgin.

"We had some service errors and we just did not play a good game against them," CLC Coach Sue Garcia said of the Waubensee match.

The Lancers won the first game 11-5 against the Chiefs but lost the second 11-7.

The tourney at Morton had started out well for CLC as they easily handled Oakton 11-0, 11-1, Wright 11-1, 11-6 and Morton 11-3, 11-1.

CLC completed its regular season at Moraine Valley Oct. 25 and entered the week with a 24-4-2 record.

In serving, Rachel Smith, a Wauconda graduate, led the team with 47-for-49 with four aces and 35 points. Sandy Padjen, of Grayslake was 20-for-21 with four aces and 18 points and Shannon Stanek was 25-for-29 with six aces and 16 points.

Caryn Alexander, playing despite an injured toe, led the attack with 45-for-55 with 23 kills.

Antioch defender Ken Maddock, left, brings down Mundelein running back Larry Maddock. Maddock scored touchdown for Mustangs in first quarter but Antioch bounced back to win 25-7. PUNCH NO. 93

Three teams strive for one goal: reach playoffs

Staying alive.

That is the goal for three area football teams "on the bubble" regarding playoff appearances as the final week of the regular season unfolds.

Antioch, Libertyville and Stevenson all won in week eight for a 5-3 record. A win Friday or Saturday means the playoffs. A loss means wait to next year.

The Sequoias overcame an early Mundelein touchdown to cruise past the Mustangs 25-7.

"You tell the kids not to look past anybody but we weren't ready for them and they had not won a game in 20 ballgames," Antioch Coach Del Pechauer said.

Mundelein's Larry Maddock scored on a seven yard touchdown run for a 7-0 lead for the home team.

But Antioch's Dale Morgan then took over. Morgan notched another over 100 yard game and scored two touchdowns as Antioch had 70 and 55 yard drives. Morgan finished the day with 23 carries for 115 yards and TD runs of 11 and three yards.

The defense took care of the second half scoring, tallying all 11 points.

Defensive lineman Matt Stedl recovered a ball in the Mundelein end zone after a mad scramble for a third quarter score. Antioch also was credited with two safeties.

The Sequoias face a tough hurdle in the season finale, as they host Zion-Benton. The Zee-Bees are coming off a 36-28 upset of previously undefeated North Chicago. "I don't think they will have a letdown because they could win the conference if North Chicago loses," Pechauer said.

Morgan comes into the finale as the leading rusher with 800 yards. Quarterback Dan Pappadakis has thrown for 460 yards in passing and three touchdowns.

Meanwhile, Libertyville stayed alive with a 12-0 shutout of Niles North. Justin Barnes scored on a five yard run and Brad Hughes scored on a four yard run in the third quarter.

The Wildcats appear to have the toughest road to hoc of the three playoff bubble teams, as they travel to North Chicago Oct. 27. The contest was once billed as a showdown for the North Suburban Conference championship when both teams started with 3-0 records. But Libertyville stumbled at mid-season as quarterback John Garwal and key linemen were injured.

For Stevenson, the Patriots could be the hottest team of the three as they have won three straight. They easily downed Fenton 42-6 to capture their Homecoming win. Joel Dant had two touchdowns, while Chris Piggott caught a 16-yard pass from Jon Ebert, and Mark Robich and Ebert scored on short runs.

The Patriots are at Warren Oct. 26. The game could have been a playoff showdown, but Warren was eliminated at 4-4 by Lake Forest 13-0.

Warren aims to upset Patriots' playoff plans

In 1988, the Warren Twp. High School Blue Devils were in the playoff hunt right up to the eighth week of the season.

But then came Stevenson. The Patriots knocked off

Warren, and although the Blue Devils downed Fenton 40-30 in the regular season finale, the 5-4 record is rarely good enough for the playoffs.

On Oct. 26, Warren will have a chance to turn the tables as the Patriots come to Gurnee looking for a playoff spot with a 5-3 record.

"We are looking for a good final home game and to gain revenge for 1988," Warren Coach Reggie Hughes said.

Warren's own playoff hopes were dashed by Lake

Forest 13-0 Saturday.

"I'm concerned about the total inconsistency with our offense," Hughes said.

Warren's leading rusher was Paul McKissick with 70 yards in 23 carries. "We just did not convert on third down," Hughes said.

The Scouts scored on first and third-quarter touchdown runs, both by fullback Eric Royer, of 42 and nine yards.

Bears, Bulldogs hoping to erase the frustrations

Two teams hoping to end frustrating seasons with high notes will clash when Lake Zurich hosts Wauconda at 7:30 p.m. Oct. 26.

Only neighborhood rivalry will be at stake as the teams had long since lost playoff chances. For Lake Zurich, the squad was coming off two consecutive playoff appearances when practice started in August. At Wauconda, the hopes were running high for six wins and a first ever playoff showing.

At Lake Zurich, the year has been one of trying hard but no results as the Bears are winless. After a double overtime loss to Johnsburg two weeks ago, the team fell to Grayslake 14-3 last week.

The Bulldogs started the year with two wins, but lost any chance at a post-season bid because of a two-week teachers' strike.

"We did not have a good week of practice," Wauconda Coach Bob Kasper said. "We played well, though, under the circumstances but emotionally we were just not there."

Marian Central shutout

the Bulldogs 14-0 as the Hurricanes scored two second-quarter touchdowns. John Klasen scored a 10-yard run and Kris Murray caught a 20-yard touchdown pass from Dirk Stranger for the second score.

For Marian, the game was more meaningful as the defending state Class 2A champs needed to keep their playoff hopes alive at 5-3.

"This is where the good teams play their best game," Kasper said.

Kasper said he was "concerned" about Lake Zurich, which is led by running back Bill Metes and placekicker P.G. Siegwald.

Going for a kill

Warren senior Patty Geroulis (6) leaps for a kills during a North Suburban Conference tournament match. Teammates Jennifer Pulaski (10) and Stephanie Williams (1) look on. Warren in regional final Consistent play is the name of the game in post-season volleyball and as far as Warren Twp. High School Coach Felicia Moscatelli is concerned, consistency is wearing No. 6 this fall.

The Blue Devils, led by the steady net play of Patty Geroulis, easily handled North Chicago 15-0, 15-10 in the opening round of the Warren regional. The Blue Devils, seeking their third straight sectional appearance, battled Zion-Benton Thursday in the regional final. The winner advances to the Highland Park sectional Oct. 30.

"Patty plays fantastic no matter what the level of play is on the other side of the net," Moscatelli said.

Geroulis has delayed the start of her basketball season a few weeks as the Blue Devils aim to continue their post-season success. At 5-7, Geroulis may not be the most intimidating of front-row players, but don't tell that to the Warhawks. A kill by Geroulis gave the Blue Devils a 5-0 lead in game one.

Confidence and passing were the two areas Geroulis had to work on early in the year, Moscatelli said. Geroulis and classmate Nicole Stolarik are the team's top passers, the coach said. Aimee Gallaher served for 13 of Warren's 15 first game points.

The Warhawks gave the Blue Devils more of a challenge in game two. Warren started some substitutes and North Chicago had a 3-3 tie early. "When they started to play, they showed they could put it together," North Chicago Coach Kay Keehn said.

The Warhawks won only one match this year, against Lake Forest Academy, but all but two return for 1991. Captains Tiffany Duncan and Leonie Laing will graduate.

Drivers say 'no' to taxes

A survey of customers at two Mobil service stations reveals that 70 percent of its customers are opposed a tax increase as a way to balance the federal budget.

The survey of 56 customers was taken by a company employee at the Riverwoods Mobil at Deerfield and Saunders Rds. in Riverwoods and at Libertyville Mobil at Milwaukee Ave. and Rt. 137, the two busiest Mobil stations in the 13-Midwest Mobil region.

Sixty one percent or 34 of those questioned said a tax increase will not effect their driving habits. When asked if the tax increase would eventually effect them, how would they respond to the increased cost of driving their car, they replied:

Nineteen said they would "get the money somehow," two said they would "whine and complain," 17 said they would drive less and make less trips; five said they would to into a carpool or take other transportation; one person said he would buy a smaller and more fuel efficient car while 12 people said they don't know what they will do.

Nearly half of those questioned, 45 percent, said they do not know what they would do to reduce the Federal deficit. Here by number of respondents are the other replies.

One person said to use tax increase on gasoline to cover the deficit only; four said to increase the income tax; five said to increase the sales tax on other goods; one person said to cut the salary for the president while 10 suggested cutting the salary for the members of the House of Representatives and Senate; one person suggested cutting social service spending, two said to cut foreign aid spending while three suggested decreasing the space program spending and four want defense department spending reduced.

Among the respondents, 75 percent were male and 54 percent were more than 30 years of age.

Up to 3 feet long; smells with fleshy pink tongue; swings spiny tail in defense; head has to be cut off to release jaws from a bite; tail is a delicacy — tastes like chicken

Waral, or desert monitor

More than 2 feet long with snake-like head; uses tail as whip; bite is not fatal; kills spiny-tailed lizards

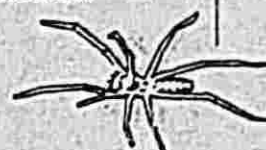

(Not drawn to scale)

Camel spider

Huge (up to 6 inches), hairy, enormous jaws; attacks and bites when cornered; bite can cause infection

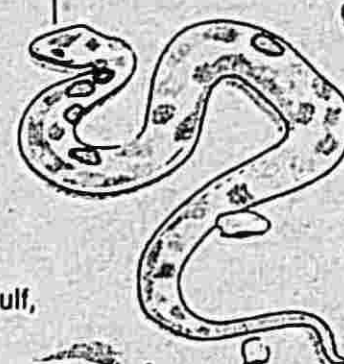

Three families of snakes

Viper: Triangle-shaped head, color of sand, hides just beneath surface of sand; frontal poison fangs; the most venomous in Saudi Arabia; bite can be fatal

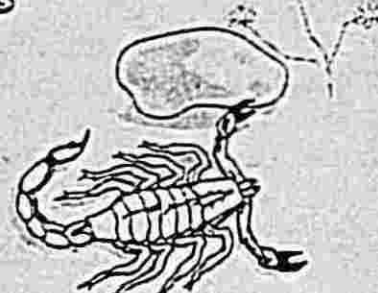

Cobra: 20-60 inches long, nocturnal, rarely comes to surface

Sea snake: Lives in Persian Gulf, highly poisonous, short fangs

Scorpion

Body up to 3 inches long; hides under rocks by day; attracted to light, warmth at night; known to crawl into sleeping bags, shoes; sting is poisonous, can cause severe pain, swelling; severe stings can cause high blood pressure, rapid heart rate; less potent bites no more serious than bee sting

Skink, or sandfish

Harmless lizard that dives into loose sand

Caution for troops in Saudi Arabia

U.S. medical experts stationed in Saudi Arabia say desert animals have not posed serious problems for troops, but medical facilities are well stocked with anti-venom medication. Also:

■ Soldiers' thick leather boots good for stomping on scorpions; turn over rocks carefully with the foot first, not with the hand

■ Bites require immediate medical care; doctors advise against attempting to suck out venom from a snake bite

■ Viper bite riskiest for children, elderly, not fatal for healthy adults

■ One U.S. soldier was bitten by a snake, but no poison entered his system

Animal shelter offers seniors a chance to adopt a pet

Save-A-Pet, a no-kill animal shelter at 2019 Rand Rd. in Palatine, will offer senior citizens a chance to adopt a pet at no cost during October and November if they meet the adoption standards of the shelter.

This program is offered in conjunction with Purina's Pets For People program.

Any qualifying person over the age of 60 may select a dog or cat of adult age to be their personal pet. In addition to the animal, the new owner will receive the initial veterinary care, (inoculations, spay-neuter, etc.) and a starter kit which provides leash, collar, food and water bowls, and a starter supply of Purina dog or cat food.

About 15,000 Pets For People adoptions have been made across the country since the program began three years ago. More than 1000 shelters in 90 cities participate in the program. This is the third year that Save-A-Pet has shared the program with Purina.

For more information contact Save-A-Pet at (708)934-7788 or visit the shelter between 1 and 5 p.m. daily except Tuesday.

HEEL PAIN

A heel spur is a bony growth on the underside of the heel bone. This growth appears in response to an abnormal pull from the ligament that runs through the arch. Other factors that indicate spurs are long term standing on hard surfaces. A bursitis usually co-exists with a spur and is what causes the pain. Treatment consists of custom made arch supports, called orthotics, that relieve the tension on the ligament and pads the heel area. Surgery is rarely indicated.

If you have the above symptoms or any other foot discomfort, you may contact Dr. Winters for a NO COST CONSULTATION to see if there may be an answer to your foot pain.

North West project reaches half way

Expansion of the sewage treatment works serving northwest Lake County is at the half way mark.

Officials of the Illinois Environmental Protection Agency made their 50 percent review of work at the Fox Lake plant Oct. 19, where a $23.5 million remodeling project is in progress for the North West Regional Sewer System.

Engineers from Donohue and Associates reported that $8 million has been expended so far from a government grant and $4 million from a revenue bond financing enacted by the Village of Fox Lake has been drawn for construction purposes.

"We're right on schedule," stated the resident engineer, who added that preparation for "winter work" is being emphasized at this time.

Because of a strike early in summer, six work days were lost. Under federal guidelines, the contract completion date has been extended six days. The project is due to completion next summer.

The remodeled plant was designed with a capacity for 88,000 persons. Approximately 44,000 are being served now.

The North West Regional system serves all of Fox Lake, Lakes Region Sanitary Dist., the Round Lake area and soon will add customers in the Lake Villa area.

Donald Wasson

Wasson to retire

Victory Memorial Hospital has announced the retirement of Donald Wasson, president, Victory Hospital Foundation; past-president Victory Health Services, on Oct. 26, ending a 29-year career at the hospital.

Under his guidance, Victory Hospital grew from a small community hospital to a leading health care provider in northern Illinois. Wasson was instrumental in the expansion of diagnostic and cardiac services at the hospital. Under his direction, Victory also led the way in developing health care services such as chemical dependency, laser surgery, home health care, adult day care and health services for older adults.

Hospital awards scholarships

Six area residents have been awarded scholarships from the Auxiliary of Good Shepherd Hospital.

The recipients are Maher Isa of Barrington, Gurdeep Othee of Lake Zurich and Joanne Walker of Round Lake Beach.

Isa, who is majoring in biochemistry/pre-med at the University of Chicago, received a $2,000 scholarship award.

Three $1,500 awards were made to: Othee, who is majoring in biology/pre-med at Youngstown State University.

Church youth groups collect food for pantry

The youth groups of Lindenhurst area churches will "Trick-or-Treat-So-Others-Can-Eat" to benefit the Lake Villa Twp. Food Pantry. On Wednesday, Oct. 31, the regular Halloween Trick-or-Treat date in this community between 6 and 7 p.m., they will trick-or-treat for non-perishable food items. Following this, they will gather at St. Mark Lutheran Church on Grand Ave. for games and pizza which will be donated by the Lindenhurst Pizza Hut.

"We really appreciate the support from the kids and the community," said Carol Makela of the LVT Food Pantry. "Our food supplies are low because of area families need for assistance and we definitely can benefit from a community activity like this."

Annette Van Zeyl of St. Mark Lutheran Church said,

"This is the second year we have done this. The kids have a lot of fun while also gaining a sense of accomplishment from their efforts. We also hope to make this an annual event with more community participation every year."

Pizza Hut in Lindenhurst has donated pizzas for the youth to share at the conclusion of the evening in an ecumenical Halloween party. Trick-or-treaters will be wearing a name badge showing their church name. Among the churches participating are St. Mark Lutheran Church, Trinity United Methodist Church and Millburn Congregational United Church Christ. Anyone desiring more information may contact Pastor McKnight (708)356-8140 or J. O'Neal at (708)356-6676.

Food drive aids shelters

Some of the local proceeds of the statewide Chiropactic Feeds the Hungry food/cash drive will assist Lake County PADS at 11 emergency homeless shelter sites in Lake County. Last year the Illinois Chiropactic Society raised 56,000 pounds of food and $20,000. This year the goal is $75,000 pounds of food and $25,000.

A drop off location is Fredrick Chiropactic Plus at 1 S. Greenleaf, Suite L, Greenleaf and Washington Sts., in Gurnee. A free session of service for a food/cash contribution is also being offered on Wednesday, Nov. 7. Call (708)662-1600 for information.

Artists at the mall Oct. 26

More than 35 artists from 5 midwest states will show and sell watercolors, photography, wood, fabric, blown glass, floral, Victorian and other original work.

Rose Ann Ludford of Lake Villa will draw portraits at the Lakehurst Mall Autumn Art and Craft Show Oct. 26, 27 and 28.

The exhibit will take place on both levels of Lakehurst during store hours. It is sponsored by the Merchants Association.

Requirements put homes out of reach

New requirements imposed by local governments have helped drive up residential building costs $10,000 to $15,000 in the past five years, a speaker told the Lake County Affordable Housing Task Force.

Peter Manhardt, an engineer, said increased costs for labor and materials and the regular inflation factor are being exceeded by requirements imposed by municipalities in the building process.

Manhardt said such things as larger lot requirements, provisions for stormwater, thicker sidewalks, wider streets, streetlighting and impact fees all contribute to making housing more expensive.

The developer has a tremendous investment in land preparation before the first foundation is dug, Manhardt declared at the group's monthly meeting at Cabriole, Libertyville.

The task force was formed by the County Board to find ways to making housing more affordable in Lake County.

"Erosion control can cost a couple hundred dollars for each house. Village boards have a 'bigger is better' mentality so we have to put in 16 inch water mains where we used to put in eight inch mains. Village require seven inch thick driveways now. Landscaping is required now where just seeding was required before.

Typically, developers formerly figured land and preparation costs at 10 percent of the selling price, Manhardt stated. Now they figure 15 percent.

Roger Gatewood, prominent Gurnee area developer, reported that increased requirements in hard dollars for land preparation have risen 98 percent in recent years.

Diane Philabosian, chairman of the financing committee, said it is likely the federal government will extend to exempt bond financing as an aid to housing.

"It doesn't look like municipalities are going to cut us much slack for making homes more affordable," Lesch remarked, referring to reducing requirements.

DOLLARS THAT LEAVE HOME ARE GONE FOREVER!

Market Analysts say that every dollar spent at home will circulate here from store A to appliance store B to food store C, and so on. Ultimately that dollar will leave, but not until it has been passed around locally.

Studies show the average dollar is passed around at least five times before it leaves your community.

Don't pave the road to the nearby city with your hard-earned money. Once your dollars are spent away from home, they're gone forever.
